Acknowledgement

On this occasion of presenting the thesis, there is a strong enticement to concede all the individuals who has helped me in this huge task. Recession and its impact on white goods, is a vast subject for a team of solo research fellow and competent guide. I solemnly concede a sense of deepest gratefulness and indebtedness towards my esteemed guide Dr. Ganesh N. Kathar, Associate Professor, Department of Commerce, Shri Asaramji Bhandwaldar College, Deogaon Kannad Aurangabad for his meticulous guidance, immeasurable suggestions and constructive discussions. His guidance from concept to completion has made this subject easy, joyful and made the research work as an pioneering experience. I have learnt lot of principles and would like to always have company with him.

A study of the impact of global financial crises on white goods in Marathwada was a new area for me to understand. I met many people for learning and understanding. I must thank each of them for giving their valuable time.
I extend my sincere thanks to dr. Syed azharuddin and dr. Syed Abdul Mannan head department of commerce, maulana azad college and dr. Khan razaullah, reader, commerce dept. Maulana azad college special thanks to university department of commerce. Acknowledgments are due to my colleagues specially dr. M.a. Imran Khan and Mr. Maqdoom Ahmed for taking care of my special requirements during my research work.

I give me immense pleasure in expressing my whole hearted sense of gratitude towards dr. M.A. Lokhande, professor & head, department of commerce, dr. W.K. Sarwade, ex-head, dept. Of commerce, dr. K.B. Laghane, dean, faculty of commerce and dean, faculty of management science for their excellent guidance and support throughout the research work. I also thank the faculty and non-teaching staff for being humble and always lend a helping hand during my research.

My special thanks to dr. N.S. Rathi, Shahebaaz Khan, for their friendly support valuable time they spared in spite of their busy schedule and kind comments.
The blessings of my beloved parents mr. Syed aliuddin hashmi (rtd. Quality inspector raymon engineering) and my mother late hajera nasreen hashmi has always been the source of inspiration to me. The love and encouragement made this daunting task, a reality.

I wish to offer my whole heartily thanks to my beloved wife mrs. Saltanat zareen for her cooperation and passions during this research work, and our daughter kanzun noorain my sons master syed hamza & syed taha for giving me delight, joy and hope.

I would like to express my feelings of affection to my brother in-laws dr. Salman baig and dr. Abdul waheed, for their concerns.

At last, but not the least, my brothers & sisters are very important to me, giving copious relaxing and never to be forgotten moments. I am thankful to mr. Abdu wahab hashmi, ms. Sadia farheen, dr. Humera taseen for their well wishes and helping me in various ways.

Syed Ahmed Abdul Razzak Hashmi