ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am thankful to the Indian Council of Social Science Research, for awarding a Project Fellowship in the Project on "Family, Dowry and Bride-price", that lasted for three years from 1986.

My heartfelt thanks are due to Dr. S.S. Sivakumar who not only supervised my work but also educated me through various stages of laborious training - intellectual as well as spiritual. I am also grateful to Dr. Chitra Sivakumar for her encouragement and timely suggestion of good references for this work.

My sincere acknowledgements are due to my aunt, Mrs. Janakalakshmi for helping me gather the substantial amount of data in Madras city as well as for making arrangements during my stay at Srirangam. I am also grateful to Mr. Rajaram and Mrs. Bhawani Rajaram for their immense help during my field stay at Mahadanapuram. The Rajaram family gave me a "home away from home" during my field work, for which I bear a debt of gratitude. I must also mention the assistance given by Mr. Venkatesan, Mrs. Indira, Mrs. Vasantha, Mrs. Elangiyam, Mr. Periasamy and Mr. Ramasamy during my field work.
I am indebted to my friend Dr. G. Mythili for educating me on the theoretical aspects of research and computer software techniques. My other friends in the department with their constant encouragement and discussions made this research more lively and thought provoking. I am also thankful to M/s Student Xerox, and in particular to Ms. D. Selvi for typing the thesis with utmost patience and care.

Last, but not the least, I would like to appreciate the encouragement and kindness bestowed by my parents during the entire period of this research.

Geetha Santhanam