The investigator expresses his profound sense of gratitude to Dr. R. Jayagopal, M.A., M.S. (Indiana), Ph.D. (New Mexico), Professor & Head, Department of Adult & Continuing Education, University of Madras, for his valuable guidance and suggestions to complete this research work. His constant encouragement has enabled the investigator to maintain his enthusiasm always at a high level. The investigator profusely thanks him for all his acts of kindness.

The investigator would like to extend his sincere thanks to Dr. V. Nagarajan, for his valuable suggestions in the early stages of the research work.

The investigator is also grateful to his former Principal, Prof. S. Santhanam who was a great source of inspiration for him in completing this project successfully.

A project such as this would not be possible without the help and cooperation of a large number of individuals and organisations. The investigator owes a debt of gratitude to the BHEL administrators, especially to the Deputy General Manager and the Township Administrative Officer for having accorded permission to interview the workers, in the residential area of Kailasapuram, BHEL Township.
The investigator would very much like to express his sense of appreciation of the warm reception given to him by the residents of the BHEL Township and the Kalkandarkottai village. There was absolutely no resentment from any member who came under the purview of this research in these two localities. The investigator warmly thanks all the residents in these two areas for their generous cooperation.

Acknowledgement and thanks for the interest and help are due to many people, all of whom cannot be named, but among whom must be mentioned, Prof. C. Chendurpandian, Teachers in the Education Department, Mr. G. Rajamani and Mr. S. Thulasiraman and BHEL employees Mr. G. Krishnamurthy, Mr. S. Selvaraj and Mr. A. Rajendran.

Special appreciation must be expressed for the sincere help given by Dr. R. Ananthasayanam, Population Education Specialist and Mr. K. Parthasarathy, Research Scholar of the Department of Adult and Continuing Education in completing this work.

Thanks are due to Mr. K. Aghoram, and Mr. G. Elumalai of the Department of Adult and Continuing Education, University of Madras for their kind help in typing the manuscripts and cyclostyled.
