ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This thesis would not have been completed without the help and assistance of various individuals. My grateful acknowledgements are due to those who have given me support in my research work. Although all the names cannot be placed here, yet my sincere appreciation for their parts is registered here.

First of all, I am indebted to so many persons, who in some way have helped me during the period of my study in India. It is with immense pleasure and a deep sense of gratitude that I record my obligations. First and foremost, words can never express my feelings and deepest sense of gratitude, indebtedness and reverence to my excellent supervisor, Prof. Baidyanath Labh, who is the Professor of the Department of Buddhist Studies, Faculty of Arts, University of Jammu. He prescribed to do research work on the present topic, gave noble guidance, valuable suggestions and has loving-kindness towards me at various stages of preparing the research. Due to his able guidance I could complete my research work.
