The Indo-us nuclear deal was much debated in both nations. Some analysts appreciate it and other criticized it bitterly. Along this deal the nuclear relations between India and USA again established after more than three decades. Because after 1974, India’s first nuclear explosion, USA stopped its cooperation with India in nuclear energy field. This is a major change in Indo-US nuclear relations. Along this on the issue of Non-proliferation treaties, like NPT and CTBT, both nations are rigidly exist on their past stand. So there are some continuity and some change in Indo-US nuclear relations.

In this research work this continuity and change in Indo-US nuclear relations has been thoroughly analyzed. It is important to know the causes of conflict in nuclear field for cooperation in nuclear field. It is relevant to know the causes of continuity and change in nuclear policies in both nations on CTBT and NPT and other nuclear issues. It is also important to know the merits and drawbacks for nuclear deal for national interest.

This study analysis the nuclear policy of both nations and issued of conflict and cooperation in this field. It will be helpful to develop the nuclear relations in future for both nations and it will be useful for future research work in this field.

This research work is completed with the cooperation, assistance and help of many people. So I am thankful to them. First and Foremost, I express my deep sense of gratitude, indebtedness and thankfulness to my learned and working supervisor, Dr. Raj Kumar, Prof. and Head (Retd.) , Department of Political Science, M.D. University for scholarly guidance and valuable help in completing this research work. Without his guidance this research work would not have been completed.

I acknowledge my sincere thanks to Prof. G.K. kar, Head of Department of Political Science, M.D. University, Rohtak, for his cooperation and valuable suggestions in my research work.

I am deeply grateful to all faculty members Dr. Rajender Sharma, Dr. Ranbir Gulia and Dr. Usha Kiran for their comments and suggestions from time to time during the completion of research work.

I am profoundly debt to my parents and other family members for their encouragement and bless. Without their inspiration, this research work would not have been completed.

And along these, I am profoundly grateful to my wife, Sarin, who always provided me affection and emotional strength during my research work.

In the end I must also express my thanks to all my friends for their valuable advices and cooperation in this research work.

DATE: VIKAS