Table Of Contents

Page No.
ACKNOWLEDGEMENT I
PREFACE III
LIST OF TABLES VIII
LIST OF FIGURES X
LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS XI
I. INTRODUCTION 1 - 110
  1.1 Peace, conflict and development 1
    1.1.1 The evolution of the concept of peace building 3
    1.1.2 Two ways of understanding peace building 6
    1.1.3 Two approaches to peace building 8
    1.1.4 Peace building from below 10
    1.1.5 Interpersonal relationships and peace building 13
  1.2 Jammu and Kashmir-A brief profile 17
    1.2.1 Peace and conflict drivers in Jammu and Kashmir 22
  1.3 The forgotten power of tourism 27
    1.3.1 The hegemony of the market 28
    1.3.2 Tourism as an industry-The marketization of tourism 32
    1.3.3 Tourism as a social force-The Transformative capacity of tourism 36
    1.3.4 Tourism and travel as a human right 38
    1.3.5 Social tourism-A forgotten commitment to humanity 42
    1.3.6 Alternative perspectives-Non-western understandings of tourism 47
    1.3.7 Tourism-Bigger than business 51
    1.3.8 The promise of tourism 52
  1.4 Destinations-An integrated multilevel perspective 55
    1.3.9 Destination planning and design 58
    1.3.10 Planning tools 61
    1.3.11 Community driven destination planning and development-An emergent approach
  1.5 Tourism paradigms and peace building measures 66
    1.5.1 Encouraging appropriate contacts 70
    1.5.2 Reducing anxiety 71
    1.5.3 Status equality 72
    1.5.4 Reconciliation 73
    1.5.5 Extending the concept of hospitality 74
    1.5.6 Ethical tourism 75
    1.5.7 Affirming human rights 77
    1.5.8 Dealing with tourism related conflict 81
    1.5.9 Countering dependency 84
    1.5.10 Dealing with globalization 85
    1.5.11 Poverty alleviation 86
    1.5.12 Promoting awareness 88
    1.5.13 Codes of conduct 88
    1.5.14 Poverty tourism 89
    1.5.15 Reminders-Peace poles, gardens and parks 91
    1.5.16 Education 92
II CONCEPTUAL FRAMEWORK & REVIEW OF LITERATURE 111 - 210
2.1 Epistemological developments in conflict literature 111
2.1.1 Different conflict concepts 112
2.1.2 Controversy over conflict notions 112
2.1.3 Definition attempts 113
2.1.4 Conflict categories 114
2.1.5 Non-violent conflicts 117
2.1.6 Violent conflicts 118
2.1.7 Conflict dynamic 122
2.1.8 Conflict issues 124
2.1.9 Territory and border conflicts 125
2.1.10 Minority, ethnic and government-power conflicts 128
2.1.11 Conflict over resources 129
2.1.12 Conflict management 130
2.1.13 Conflict settlement 131
2.1.14 Conflict resolution 132
2.1.15 Conflict transformation 133
2.1.16 Conflict prevention 135
2.2 Conflict management approaches in tourism 136
2.3 Destination peace building approaches 138
2.3.1 Peace building—Collective understandings 142
2.3.2 Top down approaches—Policy makers in headquarters 147
and national capitals
2.3.3 The liberal peace debate 148
2.3.4 A partial picture based on misleading assumptions 150
2.3.5 Bottom up approaches—Implementers on the ground 151
2.3.6 Organizational and professional cultures 152
2.3.7 Reconciliation in relation to the restoration of 153
Interpersonal relations
2.3.8 Restoring interpersonal relations through contact 157
2.3.9 The contact hypothesis 159
2.3.10 Extensions of contact hypothesis 160
2.3.11 Social exchange theory (SET) 166
2.3.12 Social representation theory (SRT) 167
2.4. Tourism paradigms and Peace initiatives 168
2.4.1 Book review—Tourism, progress and peace 192
2.4.2 Content overview 192
2.4.3 Content previews 194
2.4.4 Part-I: Conceptual framework 194
2.4.5 Part II—Tourism encounters 196
2.4.6 Part III—Conflict resolution 198
III. TOURISM PHENOMENOLOGY AND PEACE BUILDING 211 - 254
MEASURES - A SWOT ANALYSIS
3.1 Introduction 211
3.1.1 Strengths 213
3.1.2 Weaknesses 215
3.1.3 Issue in focus—The negative argument 216
3.1.4 Opportunities 217
3.1.5 Threats 219
3.1.6 Case Study—The impacts of instability 220
3.1.7 Discussion 222

3.2 Peace building measures and tourism processes - A case 226

Study of Jammu and Kashmir

3.2.1 Introduction 226

3.2.2 Tourism as a logical confidence building measure in 228
Jammu and Kashmir

3.2.3 Past and present of tourism in Jammu and Kashmir 332

3.2.4 The Indian side 333

3.2.5 The Pakistani side 335

3.2.6 Tourist numbers 338

3.2.7 Cross-Loc tourism in Jammu and Kashmir: Benefits 339

3.2.8 Tourism as an agent of peace 339

3.2.9 Tourism as an economic boost 241

3.2.10 Cross-Loc tourism in Jammu and Kashmir: 242

Challenges

3.2.11 Discussion 244

3.2.12 Start with package tourism 246

3.2.13 Make distinction between types of visitors 246

3.2.14 Relax travel restrictions to regional festivals and 247 border melas

3.2.15 Open the Jammu-Sialkot and Kargil-Skardu routes 248

3.2.16 Ease travel and communication restrictions 249

3.2.17 Create necessary infrastructure and help civil society 249 to build parallel structures

3.2.18 Allow closer interaction between the AJK and J&K 250
tourism departments

3.2.19 Build infrastructure and develop professional training 250

3.2.20 Allow public-private partnership 251

IV RESEARCH DESIGN 255 - 298

4.1 Introduction 255

4.2 Reflections on tourism research and knowledge 256

4.3 The problem assessment and the conceptual design 262

4.3.1 Tourism, socio-cultural empowerment and its 264
destination rebuilding implications

4.3.2 Tourism, psychological empowerment and its 265
destination rebuilding implications

4.3.3 Tourism, economic empowerment and its 266
destination rebuilding implications

4.3.4 Tourism, political reconciliation and its 267
destination rebuilding implications

4.3.5 Tourism, environmental security and its 269
destination rebuilding implications

4.4 Rationale of the study 270

4.5 Scope of the study 273

4.6 Hypotheses 274

4.7 Objectives 275

4.8 Survey design 276

4.9 Sampling design 277

4.9.1 Sampling frame 278
4.9.2 Sample size 278
4.10 Data collection 279
4.10.1 Desk research 279
4.10.2 Primary data collection 279
4.10.3 Sources of primary data collection 279
4.10.4 Places visited for data collection 281
4.10.5 Secondary data collection 283
4.11 Survey instrument design 284
4.11.1 Pre-testing of the survey instrument 287
4.11.2 Results and reliability of the pre-test study 287
4.12 Statistical considerations 289
4.13 Data analysis methods 291
V DATA ANALYSIS AND INTERPRETATION 299 - 346
5.1 Introduction 299
5.2 Demographic analysis of the respondents 299
5.3 Scale refinement and validation 301
5.4 Effects of crisis on tourism industry in 304
Jammu and Kashmir- A content analysis
5.4.1 Deteriorating conditions of the tourist resorts 307
5.4.2 Substantial decrease in the foreign exchange earnings 308
5.4.3 Poverty and relative deprivation 309
5.4.4 Increasing unemployment and youth alienation 311
5.4.5 Multi-level costs of the conflict 312
5.5 Descriptive analysis 314
5.5.1 Tourism and socio-cultural empowerment 314
5.5.2 Tourism and psychological empowerment 315
5.5.3 Tourism and economic empowerment 316
5.5.4 Tourism and political reconciliation 317
5.5.5 Tourism and environmental security 319
5.5.6 Socio-cultural empowerment and destination 320
Rebuilding
5.5.7 Psychological empowerment and destination 321
Rebuilding
5.5.8 Economic empowerment and destination 323
Rebuilding
5.5.9 Political reconciliation and destination 324
Rebuilding
5.5.10 Environmental security and destination 326
Rebuilding
5.6 Adequacy and scale purification 327
5.7 Factor analysis 329
5.8 Scree test 333
5.9 Regression Analysis 334
5.9.1 Regression output for socio-cultural empowerment 335
through tourism and destination rebuilding process
5.9.2 Regression output for psychological empowerment 336
through tourism and destination rebuilding process
5.9.3 Regression output for economic empowerment 337
through tourism and destination rebuilding process
5.9.4 Regression output for political reconciliation 338 through tourism and destination rebuilding process
5.9.5 Regression output for environmental security 340 through tourism and destination rebuilding process
5.9.6 Regression output for the overall peace initiatives 341 through tourism and destination rebuilding process

5.10 Comparison of mean perceptions (Independent t-test) 342

VI CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTIONS 347 - 380

6.1 Prologue 347
6.2 Findings of the study 358
6.3 Suggestions and policy recommendations 367
  6.3.1 Suggestions for the tourism policy makers 370
  6.3.2 Suggestions for the international organizations 371
  6.3.3 Suggestions for the multinational companies 372
  6.3.4 Suggestions for the non-governmental organizations 373
  6.3.5 Suggestions for the local community 373
  6.3.6 Suggestions for the tourists 374
  6.3.7 Other major policy imperatives 375
6.4 Research contributions 377
6.5 Recommendations for future investigations 379