ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

From beginning till completion of this work many distinguished and kind hearted souls helped me. Without remembering them, this work will be incomplete. First of all, I thank ‘Almighty’ who introduced me to some kind hearted and ever helping people who helped me initiate and complete this work. The foremost is Prof. Rajender Gupta, Convener, Board of Studies in Economics and Dean Social Sciences, University of Jammu. My sincere gratitude to him for his invaluable guidance and supervision, strong motivation, encouragement and support which made me complete this work.

I also want to put on record my deep sense of gratitude for Prof. Sangita Gupta, HOD, Department of Library sciences, University of Jammu, for all the encouragement and help extended by her for completion of this work.

I want to remember gratefully both the present and the former Heads of Department of Economics, University of Jammu, Prof. Dipankar Sengupta and Prof. Jasbir Singh for positive encouragement and for providing me the required research infrastructure.

Dr. Manoj Bhat Asst. Prof., Department of Economics, University of Jammu and my friend Paramjit Singh Asst. Prof. in Economics, Govt. Degree College Jindrah, helped me improve my draft, as and when I asked them for.

My friends Rajinder Singh K.A.S.(Labor and Employment Department), Sunil Chaudary, K.A.S.,( Asst. Labor Commissioner, Jammu ) and Gurpreet singh K.A.S. (Industry and Commerce) extended their help for collection of data. I am also thankful to Executive Engineer P.D.D, Jammu for the help in data collection.

I am also thankful to office staff of Department of Economics, Librarian Dept. of Economics, University of Jammu, Librarian, Central Library, University of Jammu, Library staff of I.I.P.A. New Delhi, N.C.A.E.R. New Delhi for all the help extended. Finally, I have to gratefully acknowledge the sacrifice of my family-my mother, my wife and my daughter who all spared me from all my family obligations and encouraged me devout my time for completion of this work.

KULWANT SINGH