ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First and foremost thanks to the Creator and Guardian, “GOD” for being my strength and guide in writing this thesis with patience. „Thank you“ for providing me an opportunity to proceed successfully to bring this task to realization.

It is exclusively a unique opportunity to express my deepest sense of gratitude to my esteemed supervisor Prof. K.K. Sharma, Dean Life Sciences and former Head of Department. It is because of his able guidance, optimistic approach and research aptitude that inspired me to reach my goal. I will always remain indebted to him for his scholastic insight, untiring effort and worthy suggestions, along with critical approach that polished my work in better form. It was a real privilege and an honour for me to share his exceptional scientific knowledge and extraordinary human qualities that helped me in developing patient and calm attitude that a researcher should possess.

A word of respects and honour for my Co-supervisor, Dr. Arti Sharma for her timely suggestions, sincere advice, constant encouragement, valuable instructions and motherly treatment that made my journey more smooth and comfortable. Her incessant guidance really helped a lot in bringing this thesis in its present form.

I owe my special and sincere thanks to Prof. Prof. Roopma Gandotra, (Present Head of the Department) and Prof. Kadambri Gupta, (Former Head of the Department) for their commendable opinions, benediction and for extending all facilities whenever required.
I would fail in my duty if I don’t extend my word of appreciation to the entire teaching faculty of the department viz; Prof. D.N. Sahi, Prof. N.K. Tripathi, Prof. J.S. Tara, Prof. Seema Langer, Dr. Sanjay Bhatia, Dr. Parwinder Kumar and Dr. Sarabjeet Kour for their support and cooperation.

My thanks are due to the non-teaching staff of the Department of Zoology, especially, Mr. Pardeep, Mr. Suresh Gupta, Mrs. Sureshta, Mr. Makhan Lal Koul, Mr. Roop Singh, Mr. Purshotam, Mrs. Kavita, Mr. Manu Malhotra, Mrs. Sunita, Mr. Puran, Mr. Harbans, Mr. Lucky and all others for their help.

Deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Shvetambri Jasrotia, Dr. Surinder Pal Sharma and Dr. Rajinder for their kind words and help rendered during the compilation.

I am sincerely thankful to Directorate of Agriculture, Jammu for allowing me to use their infrastructure and equipments.

Highly indebted to the University of Jammu for providing me financial assistance in the form of scholarship.

I express my appreciation to Dr. Chandrakiran, Dr. Ruchi Sharma, Meenakshi Saini, Komal Bangotra, Deep Novel Kour, Dr. Samita Chowdhary, Sadhana Sharma, Neha, Aarti, Bipu, Vikas, Kunal, Hiteshi, Aman, Neha, Devinder, Meenu, Neha, Harjeet, Shiwali, Chhavi, Rashmi, Irfan, Surbhi, Ritu for valuable cooperation and friendly working atmosphere.

Extremely thankful to Sakshi Koul & Rohit Bhardwaj for encouraging cooperation and invaluable advice.
Grateful to my friends Ravi, Rupinder, Priya, Pawandeep, Uzma, Ashima, Shweta and Ruksana for their prompt help whenever needed. This thesis is fruit of the efforts of my mother Mrs. Suman Sharma and my father Mr. Vidya Sagar Sharma who dreamt it to be and made it happen with their tireless efforts. Thanks to all my elders who blessed me and stood by me in every thick and thin till now and younger brothers and sisters for their live presence.

It would be selfish not to mention my indebtedness towards my father-in-law—Sh. Sham Lal Sharma and mother-in-law (late) Smt. Kamlesh Sharma who absolved me from all domestic liabilities and helped me in carrying my dream forward.

Not possible to pen down my regards to my life partner, Mr. Vishal Sharma who stood by and hold me strongly during tough times throughout the whole venture.
