ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In presenting this work, it should be humbly stated that this thesis would not be completed without the various kinds of help given to me by various persons and institutions. So, I would like to take this opportunity to express my profound indebtedness to all those who have kindly contributed towards the completion of my thesis.

First of all, I would like to express my deep heartfelt gratitude especially to my supervisor Prof. Ram Nandan Singh, the Head, Department of Buddhist Studies, University of Jammu, who first opened my eyes to many things, whatever is of merit in the present study is the result of his guidance; his insightful comments and suggestions on the drafts of the manuscript, as well as his invaluable constant guidance, sincere encouragement, timely support, affectionate supervision and maximum devotion have immensely added value towards the completion of my thesis at every stage. Without his tedious task of reading and correcting my thesis from beginning to end, this research would not have been considered as a complete work.

I also express my deep sincere gratitude to Prof. Rakesh Kumar Mishra and Prof. Baidyanath Labh, Senior Professors in Buddhist Studies in the Department of Buddhist Studies, University of Jammu, for their kindness, compassion, hospitality, generosity and warm invitation to study at University of Jammu as well as to reside in Jammu City; Thanks to all the teachers and the staff of the Department of Buddhist Studies, the Librarian and the staff of the Departmental library and the Librarians and the staff of the Dhanvantri (Central Reference) Library of University of Jammu for their kind co-operation and excellent information service throughout the course of my study.

I am immensely indebted to Most Ven. Phra Sobhonapariyattayabhorn (Ch. A. Saccavaro) the Vice of Ecclesiastical Provincial Governor of Surin Province, and the abbot of Wat Promsurin, Muang Surin, Surin Province, Thailand who has graciously granted this special opportunity for me to study in India, and Most Ven. Phra Rāja Ratanarangshi (V.P.Virayuddho, Ph.D.), the President of Wat Thai Kusinara Chalermraj (The Royal Thai Monastery, Kushinagar) of U.P., India who supported me with ungrudging patience and have kindly awarded me scholarship during my M.A. and M.Phil. Programmes at University of Delhi and Ph.D. Programme at University of Jammu.
I also express my deepest gratitude to Phra Phragsrikripatiyattivisuddhi (Kowit Aphipuñño Ph.D.), Phra Phragsripatiyattivisuddhi (Khomson Guttadhammo Ph.D), the Abbot of Wat Thai Jetavana Mahāvihāra, Savatthī, U.P., India, Phramaha Duangchan Guttasilo Ph.D., Phramaha Ai Wonglakorn Ph.D., Assistant Prof. Phramaha Magavin Purisuttamo Ph.D, Phramaha Pornchai Sirivaro Ph.D., Phramaha Siri Pumnoy Ph.D., Phramaha Vichian Dhammadvachiro Ph.D., Phramaha Theraporn Dhīravaro, Phramaha Prapakorn Nandakor, Phra Watchara Vachirañāno, Phramaha Jirayuth Jirayutto, Phramaha Dhanardhip Hardnaulee, Phra Winai Junlao, Phra Daosadeth Leutmany and my colleagues in University of Jammu, Phramaha Surasak Prajantasen Ph.D, Phramaha Chainarong Tessai Ph.D, Ven. U Kondala, Phramaha Sanchai Racharee, Mr. Suresh Kumar, and Mr. Sunil Kumar Sharma for their valuable advice, intellectual impetus, and enthusiasm. I pray to the Buddha for their health and eternal happiness.

Besides all, I am thankful and express my warm feeling to both the senior and junior friends in the Dhamma of the Department of Buddhist Studies, University of Jammu, and the Thai Saṅgha Student Groups, University of Delhi, for their assistance, encouragement and sundry other facilities.

I am also thankful to the Buddhist scholars and other prominent scholars on the subject whose views are examined and referred to. Besides those whose work I have quoted, for their valuable and pioneering research work in this field, I am also thankful to those whose names do not appear for their contribution to the present study is equally important and is reflected in theses pages.

I owe a deep sense of sincere gratitude and appreciation to my parents Mr. Term-Mrs. Plin Sa-Ard-Iam and my elder brothers Mr. Wilai, Mr. Utis Sa-Ard-Iam, and my elder sister-in-law Mrs. Bunga Sa-Ard-Iam who always live to see and bless the progress of my work till the end. I acknowledge my indebtedness and pay them my reverence.

My special thanks are also due to Mrs. Sirion Pyharnvichitnooch, Mrs. Namjai Jintachat, Mrs. Suthinard Wongtangjai, Mrs. Churairat Panyarachun, Mr. Suntron-Mrs. Napaporn Tangpulpolwanit, Ms. Amornrat-Ms. Saowanee Jitsopeepong, Ms. Kanlayanee Phongphutthaporn, Air Purser of TG Airline Mrs. Sirinapa Busyakanit, Miss Jutina Devahastin Na Ayudhaya, every member of the “Meritorious Bridge Group (Klum Sapān Boon)”, Dr. Chad Kerdsabai, Assistant Prof. Dr. Tanapachara Nudtasara, Dr. Prapat Srikulkich, Mr. Kan Anuntachinvong, Mrs. Ratreerat Thongroopsawat and many Kalyāṇamittās (Spiritual friends) for their generous and constant support financial, their undying encouragement and precious spiritual support throughout the period my study and my life of monkhood have made me achieve everything that I have now.

Finally, all the above mentioned persons and many others whose name do not find a mention here but have directly or indirectly, contributed to the completion of this work. May they all share the merit of this gift of knowledge and flourish in the Dhamma, rebound to their spiritual progress and be without suffering and violence and may they emancipate themselves from evil and attain happiness and peace forever.

May all of you have this merit added as a factor to attain Nibbāna in the end:

_Idam me puññam nibbānassa paccayo hotu._
_Idam me puññam sabbasattānam demi._

May this merit of mine be the factor for Nibbāna!!
I wish to give this part of my merit to all living beings!!
