ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The completion of this research study is an encouragement, support and blessings of Scholars, Professors and almighty god. Their substantial contribution to the study made my endeavor to accomplish this mission of research successfully. I owe my great sense of indebtedness and gratitude to my guide Dr Rajendra Mishra, Associate Professor, The Business School, University of Jammu. His invaluable and instrumental guidance has always supported me to move ahead and accomplish the study. His keen observation and impeccable guidance has made my study more relevant and valuable. I express my sincere thanks to Prof Versha Mehta (Director-The Business School) and all revered faculty members of “The Business School” (TBS), University of Jammu without whose guidance and support completing this study might not be possible.

Dr. S.R. Agarwal Chief Medical Officer (CMO) Ministry of Health, Govt. of India was very instrumental in the making of a vision to have various dimensions in the study. I have great gratitude and feelings for his guidance and support. I pay my great respect and honor to Dr M.M Mishra (Former Head of Department, TBS) whose blessings, guidance and support has provided a rich motivation to augment the study vigorously.

My heartily thanks to respectable Prof N S Gupta , former Head and dean, The Business School(TBS), University of Jammu. His rich knowledge in research has been a guiding force throughout the period of study. My humble gratitude to my father Shri Ashutosh Mani Tripathi, whose motivation to put heart and soul to achieve goal has been a source of inspiration.
One person who has always enquired and inspired me regarding development of my studies is elder brother Dr Shailendra Mani Tripathi. I acknowledge my benign and sincere thanks to my wife Rina and my daughters Shubhangi Tripathi and Nimisha Tripathi, who always missed my presence at home during the period of research. I express my kind feelings of gratitude for all the doctors of various Hospitals and their staff, tour operators and, international patient department of various Hospitals. I also sincerely thank those patients and companions, who gave their valuable time and input to support my study. I sincerely express my kind thanks to all writers and authors of various books and title, whose thoughts and opinion has shaped my course of study. I sincerely acknowledge my indebtedness to all the scholars, authors and organization whose work I have quoted in my thesis. I would fail in my duty if I do not express my gratefulness to various officials working in Ministry of Health and Ministry of Tourism (Government of India). I would thank almighty, my mother, brother, sister; friends and relatives whose affection, encouragement and support have made me to accomplish this vital research work.
