ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Prathmya Guru ji ko Vandana; Dwitya Aadhyya Ganesh
Triytiya Simra Sharada; Mere Karaj Karo Hamesh; Jai Maa.

To begin with I would like to thank “THE ALMIGHTY”, the beneficent, the merciful for showering his mercy on me and make me what I am today. He blessed me with the ability and valor to get over the obstacles in my way, to move ahead and face the challenges of life and successfully complete this work.

This work is my journey in obtaining my Ph.D. degree and has been a tough journey and the most important phase in my academic career. Now I have reached at the end of this journey and this work has been kept on track and reached to completion with the support and encouragement of numerous people. It is a pleasure to convey my gratitude to them all in my humble acknowledgement.

“A journey is easier when you travel together. Interdependence is certainly more valuable than independence.”

I take this opportunity to thank all the teachers of my life right from the start of my journey to A, B, C, till now. As it is their effort that I have reached this place in my life.

I consider myself fortunate and greatly privileged to have worked under the supervision of my esteemed supervisor “Prof. I. V. Malhan”. Words are inadequate to express my deep sense of gratitude and sincere thanks for his benevolent guidance, meticulous supervision, whole hearted encouragement, sage advice, continuous inspiration, unfailing co-operation, sense of sympathy and constructive criticism in execution of my work and for all the trust he had in my ability primarily responsible for the completion of this stupendous work.

I express my heartfelt thanks to Prof Sangita Gupta, Co-supervisor and Head, Department of Library Information Science for her moral support, cheering concern and her optimistic attitude for doing things. This research environment would not be possible without her determination that have helped create the best study conditions and providing technical and timely academic support and all necessary facilities.
I am very grateful to Prof. Naresh Padha and Mohd. Shoaib (ex I/C Librarian) and Prof. Vivek Gupta (I/C Librarian) for helping me and facilitating me with all the resources required to compile this work and also for healthy co-operation and motivation.

I am highly thankful to Mr. Vikram Sahi (Computer Scientist, my ex-section incharge) who always encouraged me to keep going with work and always advised me with his invaluable suggestions. I gratefully acknowledge the kindness and support rendered by my present section in-charge, S. M. Shahid.

It gives me immense pleasure to put on record my deepest gratitude to all the Sources of Traditional Knowledge for sharing their valuable knowledge with me. Without them this thesis might have not been written and to whom I am greatly indebted.

I express my heartfelt thanks to all the persons who helped me in collecting the data especially Mr. Vidya, Ibrahim and Javed Sir.

A special thanks to all my school friends especially Dr. Shilpi, Deepti Padmanabhan, Nidhi and Dr. Nalina who have motivated me to pursue this work.

It was extremely enjoyable experience for me working with all my seniors/ research colleagues especially Anuradha Seth, Anuradha Sharma, l. D. Mengi, Sudhesh Tripathi, Dr. Seema, Renu, Kulwinder and Sunita. Thanks are due to them for extending thoughtful co-operation in my research work and providing me encouragement whenever I needed it the most.

I, acknowledge my heartfelt thanks to all the officers, professionals, library attendants and other employees working in Dhanvantri Library and all departmental libraries for their help and unending inspiration.

I express my heartfelt thanks to all faculty members and other employees working in the Department of Library Information Science for their support and timely help during the course of my work.

I will be failing in my duty if I don’t express sincere thanks to the Non-Teaching Staff of University of Jammu, for their timely and sincere help during the course of my entire study.
I am thankful to my parents who gave me my name, my life and everything else in between. I am immensely grateful to my father Mr. Sham Wadhera for his blessings that helped me to cross all the bridges which came in my way during the research work. I would also like to thank my mother Lt. Nirmal Wadhera for her heavenly blessings. I know she is always with me in my every step. Thanks for being with me always I miss u a lot Maa. It is because of their prayers, blessings, unconditional love, support and encouragement which was put together to ensure a huge success in my academic pursuit.

I express my unfathomable love, gratitude and respect to my loving sisters and brother-in-laws Namita Didi & Surinder Jiju and Shilpa & Vinay Gulati for their selfless affection and encouragement.

I am grateful to my mother-in-law Smt. Santosh Gupta and father-in-law Sh. R.C. Gupta for their continuous support and encouragement in pursuing this research of mine.

I would like to thank my sister-in-laws, Shakti Bhasin, Poonam Abrol and Nisha Gupta and my brother-in-law, Susheel Gupta for their love, care and inspiration throughout my research work and lifting me uphill this phase of life.

My kids Kamya and Krishang deserve special thanks for their love. They were the most sufferers from my work as they really felt my absence while I was engaged in my research, which is commendable. I love them and dedicate this work to them from the core of my heart.

Above all, a special revered thanks to my husband Neeraj Gupta (KAS) for his constant co-operation and encouragement, in spite of his busy schedule, which has brought this work to its ultimate structure. His guidance, healthy criticism and supportive hand have been like scaffolding which has presented me from falling apart during times of constant stress. It's my fortune to gratefully acknowledge the support of special individual of my life.

Last but not the least, I want to thank those who said me ‘No’, it is because of them that I could do it.

(Samita Wadhera)
