Acknowledgement

The present research work has been completed under the guidance Dr. R.P. Sharma through his meticulous supervision, unflinching co-operation for his very fecundity of his vision and throwing conclusions which are suggestive and extraneously convincing, is the test his scholarly validity and authenticity.

I wish to express thanks to Prof. V. S. Manhas, Co-Supervisor & Head of the department for co-operation and all the help readily available. My gratitude also due to Dr. Anuradha Sharma, Dr. D.S. Raina, Dr. Sarfaraz Asgher and Dr. Shashi Prabha for their time to time advice. My thanks go to librarian and non teaching staff. I am highly indebted to Prof. M.N. Koul and Prof. G. B. Singh for the readily availability of their expertise.

The material for the present enquiry derived from the text books for which I have been responsible and the information have been garnered far and wide. I have quoted inadvertently from other research studies which despite every care may have occurred from multiplicity of sources. I trust the authors concerned will accept of my apologies and thanks.

I am also grateful with humility to my colleagues/ scholars/ friends for pervasive, consistent, tenuity and readily expertise available at my disposal. In fact, it's impossible to name all the individual institutions, thanks are also due them.

I wish to express deep sense of gratefulness to my parents for their immense and perennial contribution and supportive venture. Acknowledgement is inadequate without express my sense of gratitude those have directly or indirectly for their consistent inspiration of brilliant thoughts and innovative ideas. The usual caveat applies; all residual errors that remained are of course mine.
