ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I humbly bow my head to offer my humblest thanks to Almighty God, The most Gracious and Compassionate, whose bounteous blessings always enable me to perceive and pursue higher targets for life. I thank God who blessed me with the courage and enduring patience to learn and accomplish this important target of my life and for blessing me with Jiya, as her being in life has made a great difference to me. Her unconditional love has made every second of this Journey worthwhile. She truly is the sunshine of my life.

Research in the era of science and technology is a joint effort of many individuals and particularly in psychology, the research work is often related to the human beings. It is impossible to complete the work without the co-operation and willingness of the teachers, parents, benefactors, friends and executive officers.

At the top I express the gratitude for my worthy supervisor -” Professor Arti Bakhshi” for her commendable and inspiring supervision throughout the study, for her stylistic suggestions and substantive challenges to help me improve my presentation and clarify my arguments, for her unfailing source of guidance and enlightenment, for always been there to help me in every respect. My Dictionary fails to provide me appropriate words for the admiration of this highly helpful and affectionate personality. I acknowledge encouraging feedback with understanding attitude as well as valuable criticism and most of all for always been there to help me in every respect. Her enlightened guidance, timely suggestions and all time help has facilitated my efforts in finding out various operating procedures essentially required to proceed with the research work and has significantly contributed to the results, findings and formulations in this thesis. I sincerely thank her for helping me to complete my research work.
Inspiration to dedicate myself to my profession and to acquire my Ph.D degree is attributed to Dr. Amrish Kohli, my brother, who in spite of being busy, spared time to help and always encouraged me to keep going. I am deeply indebted to him for helping me to pursue my work in certain difficult and crucial situations and for doing all which was possible in human endurance. His quick responses to my needs were reassuring during stressful times, allowing me to remain focused and disciplined and has helped to keep me accurate in my research. My deepest thanks to my loving, caring, and supportive brother, without his help I could never have complete my task in time.

I owe a great debt of gratitude to my sweet bhabi Dr. Mittu, who generously contributed her time and effort by always being with me and by providing me all her help and support.

Professor Sarda sreedevi Amma has been generously accommodative to offer her valuable suggestions. Her motivation enabled me to face the rigors of research with enduring resilience. I would like to extend my special thanks to her.

I extend my warm gratitude to Prof. Shams-ur Rehman Khan and Dr Rasmita Das Swain, for their understanding, encouragement and personal attention which have provided good and smooth basis for my research work.

I acknowledge with profound regards the efforts, keen interest and willing cooperation of Dr. Manish Sharma Associate.Professor, Divn of Statistics, SKUAST-J Chatha, Jammu for providing statistical analytical guidance in making the data comprehensible and presentable.

A special expression of thanks is offered to Mr. Ashwani Sharma, Mr Davinder Dubey and Mr Vinod Sharma for providing help in feeding research data on computer and for assisting me in running the SPSS for data analysis. My sister Mrs Seema
Nargotra and Brother-in-law Mr Varinder Nargotra in particular, deserve thanks for always praying for my success and blessing me to work hard and hitting the target.

I would like to thank the library staff for making reference material available to me from time to time. Support rendered by the office staff is duly acknowledged.

My long lasting friends Anjali, Sarabpreet, Nazia, Vijayta have been wonderful. They have been my biggest support for encouraging me to do my research. I am lucky to count them as a friend.

I take the opportunity to say heartfelt thanks to Dr Shiveta Gandotra, Prof. Muqbil Chisti, Prof. Neelu Gupta, Prof. Ashwani Khajuria and Dr. Navin Anand for their support, understanding and personal attention.

I would also like to thank Dr Sarita Sood, Dr Coral Vishal, Ms. Remia Mahajan, Ms. Richa and Mr Rahul, the research scholars in the department who helped to make this experience extremely rewarding. I have been enriched in so many ways, both personally and professionally, from this program.

My special thanks are also due, to all those couples included in the sample for sparing their time for this study and enabling me to collect data. We began as strangers and ended as family. Thanks to all.
