ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I consider my bounded duty to thank heartily to the Almighty God for his abundant love and blessings on me. I find him always with me to show the right path at every step of my life.

It is with deep humility that I thank my respected supervisor Prof. Geeta Manaktala, Department of Philosophy, Panjab University, Chandigarh for her continued interest in guiding this work. I would not hesitate to say that were it not for her hard work, diligence and carefulness this work could not have been completed in its present shape. Her constant endeavor has enriched this research work and I acknowledge a deep sense of dept and gratitude to her.

My deep appreciations are for Professor V.T. Sabastian, Chairperson, Department of Philosophy, Panjab University, Chandigarh for his cooperation and guidance that have made this work complete. His highly philosophical insights cleared the obstructions which halted my research work. He was very kind for helping me out of all administrative and other hurdles. It would be impossible to express my gratitude to my teachers Professor Dharmanand Sharma and Dr. H.P. Sah for their valuable time and suggestions regarding this work. The many hours of discussion, advice and patient guidance have enriched this study and I am indebted for this. I am also grateful to all my teachers Prof. Bhuvan Chandel, Prof.Rekha Jhanji, Prof. Indu Sarin, Prof.Veena Kapoor and Prof.Asha Maudgil. The office staff of philosophy department also deserves my thanks for their help and support.

The acknowledgements would not be complete if I do not thank all those writers whose books and articles on this subject were a great source of help and guidance and whose work has been quoted and used by me.

I am obliged to all my friends and well-wishers who made contributions genuinely in their own ways to this study. I am deeply indebted to my parents and Chacha-Chachi for their never-ending support, guidance, encouragement and for being my pillars of strength always. Their contributions right from the thought of the study to completion is unpayable.

I feel impelled to express my sincere thanks to my wife Sujeeta Gaur for her sacrifices, help and morale boosting at every phase of this study especially during the crucial moments of finalizing the work. I am thankful to her for making my life complete. I acknowledge the tolerance shown by my year old son Aadeesh whom I could not give sufficient time and care during this work. It would not be wrong to say that it was rightfully his time, which I devoted to the writing of present thesis.
