ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am indebted and thankful to Indian Council of Social Science Research, New Delhi, for granting me two years fellowship for the research undertaken. I would like to stress my profound and deep gratitude to my respected supervisor Professor (Mrs.) Mohinderjit K. Teja, for her guidance, support and valuable suggestions in this work. I personally remember those days of her reading my thesis more thoroughly than I could ever read them myself, exposing errors and bringing out unsuspected potentials; polishing grammar and style, and through it all; her entrancing demonstration of how to think for the sake of getting it right, rather than to appear clever.

I would also like to thank respected Professor Sherry Sabbarwal, Chairperson, Department of Sociology, Panjab University, for providing all facilities, which I needed in the completion of this Thesis. I am also thankful to Prof. K. K. Bansal for his unique and special guidance in the present work.

It would be a pleasure to convey my gratefulness to all the office and library staff of Department of Sociology, for their immense support and enduring encouragement in the completion of this piece of work.

Last but not the least I am expressing my thanks to all my respondents, for the valuable information and cooperation towards the completion of this study.

Department of Sociology
Panjab University, Chandigarh.

14/8/2009

(Nongthombam Bangkim)

Department of Sociology
Panjab University, Chandigarh.