ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The writing of this thesis has put me under myriad obligations, of which the first and foremost is to Dr. S.L. Goel, M.A. (Pol. Sc. & Pub. Admn.), Ph.D. (Panjab University), Associate Professor and Head, Department of Public Administration, D.C.C., Panjab University, Chandigarh, under whose erudite supervision it was my privilege to work for nearly five years. His words of inspiration, competent guidance, and benevolent advice went a long way in making this arduous study a pleasurable and rewarding pursuit.

Dr. Shriram Maheshwari, Professor of Political Science and Public Administration at the Indian Institute of Public Administration, New Delhi, despite his heavy professional commitments, took time to go through this manuscript and offered me the benefit of his critical acumen and stimulating insight into the subject. I am enormously beholden to him.

I have immensely benefitted from the encouragement and invaluable suggestions given at various times during the course of my work by Professor B. S. Khanna, formerly Head of the Department of Public Administration, Panjab University (currently abroad on academic assignment) and Dr. S. K. Sharma, Chairman, Department of Public Administration.

I am also grateful to Shri Ishwar Chandra, I.A.S. Chief, Secretary to the Government of Haryana, who apart from giving me the benefit of his firsthand knowledge regarding the civil service in Haryana, very generously issued a circular letter to all the members of the I.A.S. and H.C.S. (Executive Branch) on the cadre of Haryana, requesting them to answer my questionnaire.
Shri S.D. Bhambri, formerly Chief Secretary to the Government of Haryana and presently General Manager of The Tribune, also ungrudgingly spared time in discussing some of the more vexation civil service problems in Haryana.

I am under an obligation to many civil servants, particularly Shri Maseem Ahmed, I.A.S., Joint Secretary, Political and Services, Shri Sukhdev Prasad, I.A.S., Secretary to the Government of Haryana, Shri P.P. Chhabra, I.A.S., Deputy Secretary, Shri R.K. Chaudhry, Chief Engineer, Irrigation Department, Shri R.P. Sukhija, H.C.S., Secretary, Haryana Public Service Commission, Shri O.C. Shama, H.C.S., Secretary, Haryana Subordinate Services Selection Board, S. Sher Singh, Principal, Accounts Training Institute (Haryana), Chandigarh, Shri Shanti Prakash, H.S.S. (1) Under Secretary, Training and Welfare of Scheduled Castes and Backward Classes Department, Mr. Mangal Singh Dilawari, General Secretary of the Haryana Subordinate Services Federation, Mr. M.N. Mitra, General Secretary, State Organization of Engineering Drawing Staff, and Mr. F.C. Bhandari, President of the Haryana Government Class IV Employees' Union, discussion with whom enabled me to get refreshing insights into the working of the civil services in Haryana.

I also had the benefit of fruitful discussion with Shri T.N. Chaturvedi, I.A.S., Director, Indian Institute of Public Administration, New Delhi (also presently the Home Secretary to the Government of India), Professor Anara Raksataya (formerly Expert to the Asian and Pacific Development Administration Centre, Kuala Lumpur), Shri H.M. Mathur, I.A.S., Additional Secretary, Department of Personnel and Administrative Reforms (Training...
Division), Government of India, and Dr. V. A. Pai Panandiker, Director of the Centre for Policy Research, New Delhi.

I am also extremely grateful to Dr. (Mrs.) Aruna Goel, Lecturer in Sanskrit at the Panjab University, who all along encouraged me in my study and was in great anxiety to see fruition of my labour.

I am also obliged to many of my personal friends, colleagues and well-wishers, who have helped me in the completion of this research work. My most sincere thanks to all of them collectively, and in particular to Professor S. Bhatnagar, Shri Pradeep Kumar, Lecturer, Mr. Sudesh Kumar, Mr. S. K. Chawla, both research scholars, Mr. Satish Kumar Arora, Stenographer and Mr. Prabhat Chand, Artist.

The benediction of my mother, Smt. Lachhmi, forbearance of my wife, Sushma, and innocent caresses of my little daughters, Sugestha and Ujjawal rescued me in moments of despair and enabled the culmination of this project. To them any expression of gratitude would be far from being adequate.
