ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The researcher wishes to express sincere feelings of gratitude for all those who made this study possible.

The first words of gratitude should go to my Research Supervisor Dr. R. Vijaya Krishna Naidu, who gave me this topic for research and encouraged me to complete this work. The clarity of perception and theoretical orientation I owe to my Research Supervisor.

I express sincere thanks to Prof. Chand Basha, Head of Dept., Dr. Lakshmaiah Naidu, Dr. Ch. Uma Mohan, Dr. Amarnath R. Das, Dr. G. V. V. Ramana of the Department of Sociology for their words of encouragement and help at various stages of this work.

My sincere thanks are due to Mr. G. Parameshavar, Mr. Ramanjeneyulu, my fellow research scholars and Mr. Narayanaswamy for their encouragement and help.

I have no words to thank my husband Sri. Murahari who had been the source of my strength, in completing this work. But for his cooperation, constant encouragement, this study would never have come through. Mention should be made of my son Parameshwar who missed my care and love during this period.

I owe my gratitude to my parents Sri. M. Krishnaiah and Smt. Balamma, sister Madhuri and brothers Murali and Purushotham who were towers of strength and sources of inspiration for me.

Lastly, I express my sincere thanks to Mr. Pradeep and Mr. Satish for their excellent typing of this thesis.

M. KALPANA KRISHNAIAH.
