The thesis report marks the end of a long and eventful journey. Words would be less to thank all the persons I came across during this journey of the last few years. However, I would like to express my gratitude to all at this moment.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my research guide Dr. Ujjval Trivedi, for excellent guidance during the course of this study. The knowledge he has imparted, and the patience he has displayed was vital to completing this study. He has truly been a great source of inspiration. I am thankful for the immense encouragement that he graciously provided during this study.

I heartily thank Prof. K. C. Patel for contributing in special and meaningful ways to my personal development and academic success.

A special word of thanks is due to Prof. K. S. Rao, former Head and Prof. A.V.R.L.N. Acharya, Head, BRD School of Biosciences, for providing necessary laboratory facilities required for the successful completion of this work. I also thank Dr. R. B. Subramanian, Dr. Nataraj and Dr. Amita Shah for all their advice and help. I am grateful to all the respected faculty members of BRD School of Biosciences for their continued moral support and help whenever needed. At this time, I would like to thank Dr. Hitesh Patel and Mr. Nitin Solanki for all their help with analytical equipment, non-technical staff and all the postgraduate students in the BRD School of Biosciences.

I am grateful to Dr. Vijay Kumar Sinha and his research students, V.P. & R.P.T.P. Science College, for helping me in my research on synthesis and characterization of grafts of polyhydroxyalkanoates.

I would like to thank and acknowledge the Fellowship granted by University Grants Commission, New Delhi and CSIR, New Delhi. I thank Anand Agricultural University for providing the glycerol waste from their biodiesel plant and also I would like to acknowledge the technical support that I received from Sophisticated Instrumentation Centre for Applied Research & Testing (SICART), Charutar Vidyamandal and DST-PURSE Central Facility, Sardar Patel University for my research work.
I sincerely thank the members of my lab, past and present, Dr. Nehal Thakor, Dr. Kishor Chauhan, Dr. Rachana Bhatt, Dr. Kiransinh Rajput, Dr. Sushma Deepthi, Dr. Umang Bharucha, Dr. Hardik Bhatty, Dr. B. Kavita, Dr. Khyati Pathak, Dr. Shraddha Trivedi, Honey, Dr. Anjali Bose, Dr. Vimal, Ajit sir, Joohi, Bhoomi, Harsh, Sanket, Ravi and Kshama.

Special thanks go to my friends near and far, Isha, Shivani, Zeenat, Vilas, Ankit, Bhaumik, Ketan, Anil, Vishakha, Dhananjay, Ravi, Jigisha didi, Ahmed Ali, Dhavalbhai, Ganatara sir, Hirenbhai and Mital didi for their love and support that made my stay at Sardar Patel University so memorable. Without the advice and friendship of these colleagues, surviving the last 6 years would have been impossible. I wish to express my thanks to Dr. Pritesh Paramar, Dr. Vishal Oza, Dr. Purvesh Bharvad, Dr. Pramod Sivam, Mr. Gaurav and Mr. Sharad for being very co-operative and helpful.

I am grateful to my uncle Dr. Shashikant Sharma who has been great source of inspiration. I am thankful for the encouragement that he provided during this study.

I owe much of my academic and personal success to my parents Mrs. Yogini and Mr. Bipinbhai Patel and my little sister Dr. Purna Patel who provided me with the motivation and courage to pursue a Ph. D. degree. Without their unrelenting support and blessings, achieving this task would not have been possible. I would like to thank my dear husband, Sridhar Patel for his endless love and encouragement without whom I would have struggled to find the inspiration and motivation needed to complete this thesis. I am also grateful to my in-laws for their encouragement and blessings.

Before concluding, I take this opportunity to send my heartfelt thanks to all those who have directly or indirectly supported me during my Ph.D. tenure.

Words are not enough to express my gratitude to God Almighty for giving me this wonderful opportunity and walked me through the thick and thin to see this day.
