ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my sense of gratitude indebtedness to my guide Dr. Ms. C. V. Gandhi, Department of Commerce, BYK College, Nashik-5, for her valuable guidance, encouragement and almost involvement in carrying out the thesis successfully.

I am extremely thankful to Dr. D. M. Gujarathi (Sangamner College, Sangamner), my teacher at under graduate and post-graduate teaching who also encouraged at every step in this research. Dr. S. N. Kulkarni, Advisor WORDS’ Institute of Research in Development Studies, Nashik-6 and Dr. Ms. Leela S. Kulkarni, Director, Institute of Research in Development Studies, Nashik-6 for their counselling and persistent encouragement in performing the task, for selecting and designing the tools, analyzing of data and reviewing the report of my research work from time to time.

I am immensely obliged all the authorities of the B.Y.K. College of Commerce, Nashik especially Prin. Dr. Dhanesh Kalal, Vice Principal Dr. Smita Ramesh Chandra, Prof. C.B. Chaudhari, Dr. M.B. Kulkarni, Prof. Nagbhide, Dr. M. Bhavsar and senior colleagues in the department of Commerce, and Dr. Unmesh Kulkarni, Head, Department of Commerce of Bhonsala Military College who have directly or indirectly encouraged me from time to time in the process of this research work.

I am thankful to the authorities, officers and HR Managers Mr. Aher, Mr. Khalkar (Jyoti structure), Mr. Abhay Panchakshari (CEAT), Mr. Mohan Patil (Bosch), Mr. Sunil Sharma (Crompton Greaves), Mr. Patil V.B., Mr. Anil Sahaje (Glaxo Smithkline), Mr. Sunil Singh for their co-operation and help for giving me official information on Human Resource Development Policies and Practices and the 401 respondents to my inquiry in sample Companies including 5 managers, 25 supervisors and 366 workers.
I am thankful to the staff of libraries of my own college, B.Y.K. (Sinnar) College of Commerce and Mr.Binu, Bhonsala Military College, Nashik 5, of ‘IRDS’ Nashik for providing library facilities.

Indeed no words are enough to express my innate indebtedness and sincere regards to my husband, Mr. Yogesh H.Kulkarni who was always with me as a support in my research work, my daughter Ishwari, and my mother in law Ms.Pushpa Kulkarni, my father in law Mr. Hari Kulkarni for their adjustment, encouragement and moral support during the completion of this research work. Last, but not the least, I must thank for the blessings and inspiration of my mother Ms.Shobhana Navare and my father Mr.Anil Navare.

Place: Nashik
Date: May 26, 2015

Manisha Anil Navare
Research Student