ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

From my childhood, I was greatly moved by the 'Gurmat Sangeet*. The spiritual experience during various recitals inspired me to undertake this research. I was five years old when my respected father initiated me into 'Gurmat Sangeet' ceremonially by placing my hand on the 'Tabla'. It was the boon of his blessings that helped me to learn this sacred art in practice and theory, leading to the present research work. This presentation not only satisfies my musical urges but also I deem it my duty to share this great heritage along with these experiences and knowledge with others. First of all my debt is to my respected father, S.Uttam Singh who bestowed on me the true knowledge of 'Gurmat Sangeet'. I am also indebted to all those Ragis, Rababis and scholars, whose works of art provided the material for this research.

I cannot find sufficient words to express my heart felt thanks to the guidance and help given by Dr.Viney Kumar Aggarwal, Professor, Faculty of Music and Fine Arts, Delhi University, Delhi, and Dr.Darshan Singh Ji, Chairman, Department of Guru Nanak Sikh Studies, Panjab University, Chandigarh without which, I could never accomplish this work.

These acknowledgements will not be complete without the specific mention of the encouragement and help on all occasions, made available by Shri C.M.Dhawan, (a disciple of 'Aftab-E-Mauseeqe' Ustad Faiyaz Khan), in expressing my ideas. Particularly his idea of finding a suitable translation for Raga in the English language. He combined two words 'Musical Air' to form a new word 'Musair' which becomes an exact translation for Raga.
