"Words are inadequate and sentences are short to express my inner feelings about my cherished dream".

First of all, I bow my head to the Almighty, who is the hidden power navigating this world. He has given me a lot of strength, courage, patience and huge support to bring this herculean task to completion.

I express my profound gratitude and regards to my respected and esteemed supervisor Dr. (Mrs.) Surinder Kler Shukla, Professor, Political Science, Panjab University, Chandigarh. Her dexterous guidance, diligence, constructive criticism and above all her continuous encouragement has helped me to complete this task in such an elegant form. I am truly indebted to her for extending her total co-operation, moral support and understanding when things were not smooth. It is worth mentioning here that her cool temperament and humble nature gave me liberty to bother her at odd hours.

I wish to express my sincere gratitude to other teachers of the Department of Political Science, Panjab University, Chandigarh for their valuable suggestions.

I am particularly thankful to Dr. Deepak Kumar, Chairman, Department of Political Science, Dr. Ronki Ram, Professor, Department of Political Science and Dr. Emanual Nahar, Reader, Political Science, Panjab University Chandigarh for their valuable suggestions.

I am sincerely thankful to Dr. Sukhwinder Singh, Research Associate, CRRJD, Chandigarh, Mr. Harwinder Singh, Director and Mr. Parminder Singh, Joint Director, Economic and Statistical Organization Chandigarh for offering valuable comments, suggestions and material to improve this work.

I wish to express my sincere gratitude to my uncle Dr. Rabinder Nath Sharma, Reader Retd. Political Science, Member Syndicate, Panjab University, who supported me throughout this task. His sincere guidance, motivation and encouragement especially at the hour of need are gratefully acknowledged.

I also place on record my utmost sincere thanks to all the respondents and staff of district development office of all blocks, who unhesitatingly provided all the information and were always enthusiastically ready to answer to all my queries without which it would have been impossible to bring this work to a successful conclusion.

I am sincerely thankful to Mr. Avtar Singh, librarian, ICSSR, North Western Centre, Panjab University, Chandigarh for the kind help extended to me during the collection of material, and to Mr. Jagannath Dhiman, Panjab University, DCS, for cartographic assistance, DCS.
I would like to thank the staff of the Library, Department of Political Science, A.C. Joshi Library, ICSSR Library, Panjab University Chandigarh, SIRD Chandigarh, for making available to me the relevant reading material and methodology for undertaking my study.

My deepest gratitude goes to my mother late Smt. Darshana Devi, who passed away on Feb 20, 2008. She had a deep desire for me to attain Ph.D. degree. She always encouraged me to undertake the present research work.

I wish to extend my thanks to my mother-in-law for looking after my family during the completion of this work.

Words are insufficient to appreciate the affectionate co-operation of my husband Mr. Sudesh Kumar Yadav and my children Robin and Niharika for helping me to get through difficult times and for all the emotional support.

I will be failing in my duty, if I do not express my gratitude to my brother Mr. Ashok Kumar Bal, Advocate, cousin Mr. Ashutosh Dabgotra and Mr. Vikramjit Singh for their constant encouragement and co-operation in this endeavor.

My deepest gratitude goes to my family for their unflagging love and support throughout my life. This thesis would have been simply impossible without them. I am indebted to my father Mr. Gurdev Singh (Retired Professor History) brother Mr. Kamal Kishore Bal, Sisters-in-law and lovely kids Kanav, Kunal and Simran for their support and love.

I am thankful to my uncle Thakur Bharat Singh, village Jangal, block Dinanagar, with whom I carried out detailed discussion, regarding the plight of the women at the grassroot level in Punjab.

A research work is never complete and is never without shortcomings. I own the entire shortcomings in this work.

Finally, I would like to thank Mr. Sandeep Kumar and Ms. Sonia for typing out this manuscript with utmost care in a neat and compact form.
