Acknowledgements

I thank whole heartedly, the supreme God, the illimitable superior spirit. It is my great pleasure to express my thanks and appreciations towards the people who have in many ways assisted me to reach this stage. It gives me an immense pleasure to express my deep sense of gratitude and profound thanks to my research guide Dr. G.M.Nazeruddin, for all the advice, guidance, support and encouragement during every stage of my PhD work. I do sincerely, acknowledge freedom rendered to me by him for independent thinking, planning and executing the research. Although this eulogy is insufficient, I preserve an everlasting gratitude for him.

I would also like to thank Prof. Dr. M. S. Wadia, who meticulously examined all of our data and led us to strive for perfection. I would also like to thank him for taking the time to help me develop my scientific writing skills. I would also like to thank Prof. Mrs. Kusurkar, Prof. D. D. Dhawale, Dr. P. D. Lokhande, Dr. M. R. Sarkahawas Dr. A. A. Shaikh and Dr. Rais Ahmad for their useful help. I am grateful to my teachers of the Shivaji University where I completed post graduations, especially Prof. M. B. Deshmukhe, Prof. U. V. Desai, Prof. D. M. Pore, Dr. G. S. Rashinkar and Dr. P. V. Anbhule for inducing the enthusiasm of research to me. I feel extremely privileged and grateful to thank all my friends for their constant help and encouragement. Particular thanks to my best friends Khudbuddin Mulani, Hassan Ahmed Osman, Abdul Karim Al-Kadsi, Amar Mohite, Samir Kher, Sachin Mane, Rehman Shaikh and Ravi Ghorpade (the source of inspiration during all the tough time) who played significant roles in my life. I also extend my gratitude to my M. Sc. Batch mates Sudam Mane, Sandip Shinde, Pravin Pansakar, and Mahendra Madne for being inspiring friends and keeping faith in my potential. I am indebted to Directors of NCL and ICER, for use of the NMR, elemental analysis and Mass spectral facilities.

There are no words to acknowledge my parents for their blessings, love, sacrifice, care and continuous encouragement throughout my life. Words fall short to thank family members and teachers, who have contributed a lot for me to reach this stage and will always remain an inspiration in my life. The thesis is a form of pay to respect their attributes.
