This bibliography constitutes published works referred to in the present study and also other literature relevant to an understanding of Chandigarh. The Unpublished works, such as papers compiled by and deposited in the Chandigarh Museum by Shri M.S. Randhawa were read but not included here. Similarly, excerpts from newspapers and magazines, such as The Tribune, The Times of India, Indian Express and India Today and the government data sources, such as the Census of India volumes and Statistical Abstracts of Punjab, Haryana and Union Territory Chandigarh are not included here.

230

Malhotra, V.P. (n.d.) A Note on Chandigarh Capital Giving its History and Administrative Set Up. Chandigarh (n.p.).

232

Prakash, Aditya (no date). Chandigarh, a presentation in free verse. The author, Chandigarh.

Randhawa, M.S. (no date). Address of Welcome to Dr. Zakir Hussain at the Inauguration of the Laboratories and Workshop of the Central Scientific Instruments Organisation on 28th December. Chandigarh (n.p.).

Sharma, Sri Ram (no date). Administrative Set-up at Chandigarh. Institute of Public Administration, Punjab.

Singh Khushwant (1962). The Fall of the Kingdom of the Punjab Bombay: Orient Longmans.

