CONTENTS

Preface i-ii
Acknowledgments iii-v
List of Tables vi

1. Introduction 1-60
   a. The Problem
   b. Review of Literature
   c. Objectives of the Study
   d. Methodology and Universe of the Study
   e. Chapterisation

2. Origin and History of the Anglo-Indian Community 61-98
   a. The First Phase (1600-1785)
   b. The Second Phase (1786-1857)
   c. Community Consciousness Among the Anglo-Indians
   d. New Avenues of Employment for the Anglo-Indians
   e. The Third Phase (1858-1919)
   f. The Rise and Growth of Anglo-Indian Associations
g. The Fourth Phase (1920 onwards)
h. The Anglo-Indians in Independent India

3. Socio-Economic Profile of the Anglo-Indian Community

a. Background of the Respondents
b. Age
c. Male-Female Ratio
d. Literacy
e. Occupation and Income
f. Ownership of House
g. Religion, Caste and Culture
h. Inter-Community Marriages
i. Political Orientations

4. Profile of the Anglo-Indian Leadership

a. Age
b. Male-Female Ratio
c. Literacy
d. Occupation
c. Membership of Associations
f. Political Affiliations 5. Interest Groups: Evolution, Role and Peoples Response

a. The All-India Anglo-Indian Association (AIAIA)
b. The Anglo-Indian Association of Southern India (AIASI)
c. The Anglo-Indian Guild
d. The Anglo-Indian Welfare Association (AIWA)
e. Union of Anglo-Indian Association (UAIA)
f. Perceptions of the Anglo-Indian Respondents Regarding the Role and Performance of the AIAIA

6. Anglo-Indians in a Plural Society

a. Recognition, Status and Role
b. Political Participation and Consciousness

7. Conclusions and Suggestions

Bibliography

Appendix

I List of Nominated Anglo-Indian members to the Lok Sabha (1952-2004) II List of Nominated Anglo-Indian members to the III State Assemblies (1998-2007)
IV Census of India 1951
V Memorandum and Articles of ‘The All-India Anglo-Indian Association’

Questionnaire for the Anglo-Indian Respondents belonging to Chandigarh, Mohali, Panchkula, Ambala, Dehradun, Mussoorie, Shimla, Solan and Delhi 309-314

Questionnaire for nominated Anglo-Indian MPs and MLAs 315-318

Questionnaire for office bearers of the Anglo-Indian Association and community activists 319-322