ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I have, indeed, been privileged to have worked under the able guidance of Professor J. K. Sharma (Retd.), Department of History, Faculty of Arts, Panjab University, Chandigarh. I do not find adequate words to express my deep sense of gratitude towards him. His personal guidance, encouragement, constructive criticism, invaluable feedback and stimulating discussion at all time have been a source of inspiration to me in my work. This work has become possible only because of his priceless and constant efforts.

I extend my thanks to Dr Rajiv Lochan, Chairperson, History Department, Panjab University, the faculty and other staff members for an inevitable support in providing an intellectual environment and the required research facilities in the department. The Ambedkar Bhavan library, Chandigarh, Lajpat Bhavan library, Chandigarh, Libraries at Panjab University Chandigarh and Trimurti Bhavan, Delhi need to be put on record for their rich collection of books. A special vote of thanks notably to department of History, Panjab University, Chandigarh for their much needed cooperation through out my research work.

I am grateful to the I.C.H.R. (Indian Council of Historical Research) for providing me with much needed fellowship. The grants sanctioned, assisted me to undertake the research.

I express my profound thanks to my family, which includes my brother Deepak, who had been a great support; my sister in law Surbhi, who tirelessly helped me in typing my thesis and persistently encouraged me on in completing this research work; and my little niece Twinkle.

My friend Varsha helped in every possible way through her significant suggestions, help in the collection of the data throughout my research work. She had been a great support. I have got noteworthy inputs from Ashvani Sharma in the collection of material for my research work. Besides that I have got significant inputs with regard to the editing of my thesis from my friends Pallavi Mishra and Baljit Triwana.

Dated. [9/9/2011]

(Priyanka Aggarwal)