ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

If I have seen further, it is by standing on the shoulders of giants.
-Sir Isaac Newton, letter to Robert Hooke

Firstly, I am extremely thankful to Almighty God Who not only inculcated in me the motivation to undertake this study, but also was a source of my strength throughout the tough phases of the study.

The journey which began at the time of joining Ph.D. has come to a concluding point with the submission of this thesis. Definitely it was not a smooth sail and has gone through many erratic phases. It was the support and encouragement of numerous people including my well wishers, my friends, colleagues and various institutions. Here I humbly thank all those people who contributed in many ways to the success of this study and made this thesis possible and an unforgettable experience for me.

At this moment of accomplishment, it is my proud privilege to express my profound sense of gratitude and heartfelt thanks to my esteemed supervisor Dr. (Mrs.) Renu Verma, Vice Principal, Government College of Education, Sector 20, Chandigarh for her enabling inspiration, valuable guidance, constructive criticism, and constant encouragement, which I received from her throughout the venture. Inspite of her compulsive commitments, she devoted her considerable time and energy for me to discuss the various aspects of this research. With her Socratic questioning she helped in concept clarity and kept me on the track. Her comments on chapter drafts were no less than a course in critical thought upon which I will always draw. Her capacity to combine critique with an immediate empathy and commitment towards this research will always inspire me. I do not have enough words to describe her patient listening, constant support and encouragement which motivated me at all times.
