AKNOWLEDGEMENT

My gratitude to my supervisor Dr. (Mrs.) Surinder Shukla, Department of Political Science, Department of Correspondence Studies, who has been a continuous source of inspiration and encouragement to me throughout the period of the study. She has also patiently guided me and used her vast research and teaching experience to steer me through the mistakes and complexities of this work. I always had the pleasure of discussing various issues with her. Her gentle manner and deep concern for me kindles a sense of gratitude in my mind.

I owe a deep debt of gratitude to my co-guide Dr. Iqbal Nath Chaudhary, Professor in Political Science and Principal, Department of Evening Studies, P.U., Chandigarh, who passed away in April 2001 and is no longer around to express his happiness over the completion of this thesis.

My sincere thanks are also due to my teacher Prof. M.M. Puri, former Vice-Chancellor, P.U., Chandigarh, Dr. V.K. Bansal, Department of Laws, who helped and encouraged me to undertake the present research work.

My particular thanks to Dr. Jaspal Kuar, Lecturer, Government College, Sector 46, Chandigarh who thoroughly read the script and helped in editing the manuscript. I owe my deep regards to Ms. Sheena Paul, Department of Correspondence Studies, Prof. Tarsem Sagar, Lala Lajpat Rai D.A.V. College Jagraon, (Ludhiana), for providing valuable insight into different aspects of my research topic.
