CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS 1 - ii

LIST OF TABLES AND FIGURES iii - iv

CHAPTER I INTRODUCTION 1 - 52
- Importance of children 1
- Child population and their conditions 2
- Field of child development 9
- Growth and development 11
- Theories of child development 16
- Review of related studies 22
- Overview of related studies 47
- Present study 50
- Objectives 51
- Hypotheses 51

CHAPTER II METHODOLOGY 53 - 73
- Research design 53
  i) Construction of Social Behaviour Inventory 59
  ii) Construction of Child-rearing Practices Inventory 60
- Sampling 64
- Tools and techniques of data collection 69
- Key concepts 71
- Analysis of data 73

CHAPTER III SOCIO-DEMOGRAPHIC CHARACTERISTICS 74 - 106
- Familial attributes:
  Parents' age 76
  Cast 77
  Religion 79
Family structure & composition 79
Parents' education 82
Parents' occupation 84
Land holding 87
Socio-economic status 88
Child's attributes:
  Age 91
  Sex 92
  Order of birth 92
  Schooling 93
Environment:
  Home environment 96
  School environment 100
  Community environment 106

CHAPTER IV
Socio-demographic variables and child development 107 - 130
  Sex and child development 109
  Age and child development 111
  Birth order and child development 112
  Schooling and child development 113
  Parents' age and child development 115
  Parents' education and child development 117
  Occupation and child development 119
  Caste and child development 121
  Composition of family and child development 122
  Social practices and child development 126
  Socio-economic status and child development 129

CHAPTER V
Summary of findings and conclusions 131 - 151
APPENDICES

Tables 152
Social Behaviour Inventory 179
Child Rearing Practices Inventory 188
Interview Schedule 195
Socio-economic Status Scale 201

BIBLIOGRAPHY 204 - 223