CONTENTS

Chapter No   Title                                             Page No

1    Introduction                                                  1
      1.1a Child Labour Defined                                      1
      1.1b The Indian Scenario                                      4
      1.2 Child Labour: A Historical Background                    4
      1.3 Review of Literature                                       6
      1.4 Perspectives On Child Labour                              16
      1.5 Theoretical Approaches                                    17
      1.6 A note on Informal Sector                                 20
      1.7 Categories of child labour                                21
      1.8 Occupations / Labour divisions of child labour            22
      1.9 Objectives of the present study                           22
      1.10 Study Area, Sample Design, and Methodology               23
      1.11 Chapter Scheme                                            28

2    Demographic, Socio-Economic, Household, and Work Profile of the Respondents 29
      2.1 Demographic Profile                                       30
      2.2 Socio-economic Profile                                     34
      2.3 Migration status – tracing the roots                       44
      2.4 Working Conditions of Child Labourers                     48
      2.5 Household Profile                                          64
      2.5.i: Socio Economic, demographic and literacy profile of households 65
      2.5.ii: Occupation of household heads and household income      68
      2.5.iii: Amenities                                             71
      2.5.iv: Consumer Durables                                     74

3    Causes And Consequences Of Child Labour                      79
      3.1: Causes Of Child Labour                                    79
      3.2 Consequences Of Child Labour                              88
      3.2.i: Positive Consequences of Child Labour                  92
      3.2.ii: Negative Consequences of Child Labour                 94
      Summing Up                                                     104

4    Case Studies                                                  106
      4.1 (A1) Sonam-Standing by family                              107
      4.2(A2) Pooja – Maa, I want to help you                       109
      4.3(B1) Satto - An invisible child labourer                   110
      4.4(B2) Usha - on the way to begging                           111
      4.5 (B2) Seema- From school absenteeism to child labour       113
      4.6(B2) Veeramma – A ragpicker’s story                        116
5 Summary and Conclusion

Main Findings Of Our Study 127
The International Scenario 139
The Indian State and Child Labour 141
Latest Developments 144
Various Government Projects To Help ‘Children In Distress’, In Chandigarh 146

Bibliography 158
Appendix I 172
Appendix II 175