ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It has been a great privilege for me to have worked under the mature and able guidance of my supervisor, Dr. K.L. Sharma, Reader, Department of Sociology, Panjab University, Chandigarh. The present work might not have come into being without his constant encouragement, keen involvement and gentle and persuasive approach. I express my deep sense of gratitude to him.

I wish to put on record my sincere gratitude for Prof. V.S. D'Souza and Prof. S.L. Sharma, former Chairmen and Mr. P.M. Pimpley, present Chairman of the Department of Sociology, for helping me generously at the various stages of my work.

Thanks are also due to all the members of the Faculty for their help and cooperation from time to time.

I gladly acknowledge my honest debt to Prof. K.N. Sharma, IIT, Kanpur; Prof. Gangadharan, Christ Church College, Kanpur; Prof. G.N. Mehrotra, Head, Department of Sociology, Lucknow University; and Shri P.C. Suri; who gave me much needed help and valuable suggestions.

Besides, I am much thankful to all my friends and well wishers who helped me in one way or the other in the accomplishment of this work. My special thanks are due to my friends, Mrs. Sheela Madan, Miss Kiran Preet Kaur and Mr. Kameshwar Chowdhary, who helped me in the statistical analysis and to Mr. Pardesi, who converted my scribbling into typed manuscript accurately and speedily.

Officials in the government organisations which are engaged in the task of entrepreneurship development deserve special mention in the acknowledgements for their kind cooperation during the field work.

I shall be failing in my duty if I do not express my gratitude to University Grants Commission and Mrs. V.K. Srivastava, Principal of my college for providing me requisite facilities.

Finally, I owe it to my revered mother, sisters - Sudha, Shashi and Vandana and my affectionate friend - Saroj, more than anyone else, without whose love, patience and encouragement it would not have been possible for me to achieve my mission.
