APPENDICES
APPENDIX A

PINS-B

The following test is a measure of parents' day-to-day activities. There are no right or wrong answers in this test. For each statement, there are four possible responses - "Very much true", "Quite true", "Somewhat false", and "Very much false". You are required to tick mark (√) one of the four responses which seems to be the most applicable to your parents. There is no time limit for the test, but you are required to attempt it as quickly as you can. Your answers shall be kept confidential, so be frank and honest while answering the questions. If something that you cannot understand, raise your hand and clear your doubts.

Attempt all items. Do not leave any statement unanswered. Write anything on the question paper. Mark your responses on the answer sheet provided to you.

My mother attends the parent-teacher meetings regularly.

My mother attends the annual day function of the school.

My mother goes to meet my school teachers.

My mother attends the school functions regularly.

My mother actively participates in the meetings of the parent-teacher association.

My father attends the parent-teacher meetings regularly.

My father attends the annual day function of the school.

My father goes to meet my school teachers.

My father attends the school functions regularly.

My father actively participates in the meetings of the parent-teacher association.