APPENDIX B

PINS-P

Instructions:

The following test is a measure of parents’ day-to-day activities. There are no right or wrong answers in this test. For each statement, there are four possible responses - “Very much true”, “Quite true”, “Quite false”, and “Very much false”. You are required to tick mark (✓) one out of the four responses which seems to be the most applicable to your parents. There is no time limit for the test, but you are required to complete it as quickly as you can. Your answers shall be kept confidential, so be frank and honest while answering the questions. If there is something that you cannot understand, raise your hand and clear your doubts.

Note: Attempt all items. Do not leave any statement unanswered. Do not write anything on the question paper. Mark your responses on the answer sheet provided to you. In the following statements, the word “test” stands for classroom tests as well as examinations.

1) My mother knows a lot about my friends.
2) My mother listens to me when I want to tell her something.
3) My mother tries to guide me if need be.
4) My mother asks me what I do when I am with my friends.
5) My mother takes interest in what I say.
6) My mother knows a lot about how I spend my time after coming back from school.
7) If I have a problem, my mother is always ready to listen to me.
8) My mother often spends some time talking to me.
9) I discuss my day’s activities with my mother.
10) My mother gives due care and attention to me.
11) My mother usually knows where I am and what I am doing.
12) My mother takes interest in almost everything I do.
13) My mother usually knows what happens to me in school.
14) My mother likes to know the mistake(s) I make in the tests.
15) My mother asks me what I do in the classroom.
16) My mother usually knows what my teachers think about me.
17) My mother compares my marks with those of my friends.
18) My mother knows which teachers at school teach properly and who do not teach properly.

274
19) My mother sees to it that I have revised my syllabus before the tests.
20) My mother usually knows how well I get along with others in school.
21) My mother usually knows how I feel about my teachers.
22) My mother asks me how well my friends are doing in school.
23) My mother insists that I must try to answer the questions which my teachers ask in the class.
24) My mother likes to check how many marks I get (in each subject) in my tests.
25) My mother tries to help me if I cannot understand something in my studies.
26) My mother likes to know the remarks that I get for my homework.
27) If I cannot learn something, my mother helps me in learning it.
28) My mother usually knows how well I am doing in school.
29) My mother guides me to correct the mistakes that I make in a test.
30) My mother compares my marks with those obtained by me earlier.
31) My father knows a lot about my friends.
32) My father listens to me when I want to tell him something.
33) My father tries to guide me if need be.
34) My father asks me what I do when I am with my friends.
35) My father takes interest in what I say.
36) My father knows a lot about how I spend my time after coming back from school.
37) If I have a problem, my father is always ready to listen to me.
38) My father often spends some time talking to me.
39) I discuss my day’s activities with my father.
40) My father gives due care and attention to me.
41) My father usually knows where I am and what I am doing.
42) My father takes interest in almost everything I do.
43) My father usually knows what happens to me in school.
44) My father likes to know the mistake(s) I make in the tests.
45) My father asks me what I do in the classroom.
46) My father usually knows what my teachers think about me.
47) My father compares my marks with those of my friends.
48) My father knows which teachers at school teach properly and who do not teach properly.
49) My father sees to it that I have revised my syllabus before the tests.
50) My father usually knows how well I get along with others in school.
51) My father usually knows how I feel about my teachers.
52) My father asks me how well my friends are doing in school.
53) My father insists that I must try to answer the questions which my teachers ask in the class.
54) My father likes to check how many marks I get (in each subject) in my tests.
55) My father tries to help me if I cannot understand something in my studies.
56) My father likes to know the remarks that I get for my homework.
57) If I cannot learn something, my father helps me in learning it.
58) My father usually knows how well I am doing in school.
59) My father guides me to correct the mistakes that I make in a test.
60) My father compares my marks with those obtained by me earlier.