ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

After having secured the UGC JRF, I have travelled many states of India in search of a proper University and a proper Guide for pursuing my doctoral studies in Philosophy. At last my intention and dream got its material fulfilment in Panjab University, Chandigarh which has an excellent Library where I happened to finalise the framework of my thesis under the guidance of Dr. V.T. Sebastian, Reader and Chairperson, Department of Philosophy, who had kindly agreed to supervise my Ph.D. thesis. I acknowledge him with a profound sense of gratitude for the guidance and valuable suggestions rendered by him at various stages of the preparation of the study. Also I found the academic atmosphere under him intellectually stimulating, for, he never interfered in my channel of thought. Instead, he fostered my ideas by suggestions and timely recognition. It would never be a flattery to say that Dr. Sebastian has been more than a guide but a guardian from the beginning of my life in Panjab University.

I would like to express my deepest gratitude to Professor Rekha Jhanji who was my Supervisor for one year while Dr. Sebastian was away to Washington D.C., U.S.A. for his higher academic pursuit. Her vigilant and persuasive guidance led me to the unfathomable depth of the issues and problematics in the arena of post-modernism. It is gratefully acknowledged that apart from the philosophical venture that I was pursuing Deconstruction, Professor Jhanji was kind enough to provide me space in The Philosophy of Vivekananda, the book that she is editing. She was very keen in my participation in the seminars and discussions held under Vivekananda Centre, of which she is the Co-ordinator.

Let me express my sincere thanks and gratitude to Professor Bhuvan Chandel who helped me wholeheartedly especially at the fag end of my thesis work making me possible to get my fellowship extended for one more year without which I could not have genuinely pursued my studies.

I express my affectionate feelings of gratitude and loving regards to Dr. Geeta Manaktala, Reader, Department of Philosophy, Panjab University whose helping hand had always been, indeed, truly a motherly one. Let me also express my loving regards to other members of the faculty viz. Professor Satya P Gautam, Professor Dharmanand Sharma, Professor Veena Kapoor, Professor Indu Sarin, Dr. H.P.Sah and Dr. Asha Maudgil whose help and care stimulated my academic career in the Philosophy Department, Panjab University, Chandigarh.

I owe my thanks to my friends in Panjab University Campus like Manpreet Singh, Rejeevan E, Krishna Kumar, Pankaj Srivastava, Amith Kumar Sharma, Ashok Kumar, Jai Singh, Kulwinder Singh, Goldy, Subash, Kanchan Mehta, for their kind interventions and companionship. I express my sincere thanks to my former teachers Dr. Sukumaran and Dr. Omana in University College, Kerala University, Thiruvananthapuram, Kerala.
I wish to acknowledge each one of the Directors of the All India Society for Phenomenological Studies, (AISPS) such as Professor V.C. Thomas, Pondicherry University; Rev. Dr. E.P. Mathew, Loyola College, Madras; Dr. Sanil, IIT Delhi; Dr. Presenjith Biswas, IIT Gauhati; Dr. Gautam Biswas, Assam Central University; Dr. Lourdnathan, Madurai; Professor Lester Embree, Centre for Advanced Research in Phenomenology (CARP), USA. I wish to acknowledge my thanks to Prof. P.K. Basu and Professor Kulkarni in Hyderabad Central University who gave me an opening into an entirely new branch of philosophy - philosophy of science - in a refresher course conducted by the University of Hyderabad.

I gracefully remember my parents Velayudhan C.K. and Ammini C.V. and sisters Sathi C.V. and Suma C.V. whose silent prayers, encouragement and concern helped me in the completion of the thesis.

Let me mention only some of my 'Atmabandhus' as it is not possible to mention all in Santhigiri Ashram, Pothencode, Thiruvananthapuram, Kerala which is the Holy abode of my Guru. They are Sisyapujitha Amritha Jnana Thapaswini, Swami Jyothismaya Jhana Thapasw, General Secretary, Santhigiri Ashram; Swami Gurunischaya Jnana Thapasw, Secretary, Santhigiri Ashram; O.V. Vijayan, Novelist and Cartoonist; Brahmachari Jayanarayanan, Brahmachari Nikhil Sukhanthi; Rajeev Anchal, Film Director; Late Ambadi Krishna Pilla, K. Satheesan, Dr. Gpoinathan, Santhanan, Dr. Somanathan, Sree Kumar Kottarakkara, K.V. Rajeev, Syam, Kallar Krishnan...
Kutty and the students of Santhigiri Vidyabhavan, the residential school, where I taught for two years.

It is not an overstatement to acknowledge the work done by Ms. Kusum Gautam, who type scripted my otherwise illegible hand written script to the present form. I may also sincerely express my gratitude to Ms. Aruna Sharma and Ms. Anju and Mr. Sandeep Gautam who helped me in many possible ways especially that pertains to the office of the Department. My gratitude is expressed to Mr. Madan Lal and Mr. Faujdar for my smooth life in the Department.

In the holy name of Navajyothisree Karunakaraguru I acknowledge all people whose concern is to nourish and cherish a philosophy of emancipation.
