ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I owe a gratitude to Almighty who imbibed an innate Spirit into my soul to make this endeavour.

I am extremely grateful to my revered supervisor, guide and guru, Dr. Swinder Singh, Reader, Department of Public Administration (DCS), Panjab University Chandigarh, for the motivation he inculcated into me, for the intellectual insight, for the constructive criticism and the efficacious directions.

I am indeed grateful to the respondents i.e. Panchayati Raj Leaders, Panchayati Raj Officials, beneficiaries under Rural Development Programmes, and general people, for sparing their valuable time for answering the Question-Schedules and discussion on various issues related to the topic of the study. This research work would not have been materialised without their help.

I am thankful to my parents, especially to my mother, who acted as a strong pillar to fulfill my educational aspirations.

I am equally thankful to my wife Ms. Tanu Khera who tolerated and supported me during this study.

I owe a grateful thanks to my Brother-in-Law Mr. Sunil Suri, who supported me in a great way in this endeavour.

I owe a grateful thanks to Thesis Centre owned by Dr. O.P. Midha and his team including Mr. Vishal Saini, Mr. Ramesh Rajpoot, and Miss Manjit Kaur who helped me by typing this study.

I am thankful to my young child who tolerated my negligence towards him during the completion of this research work.

Date: 29-12-2006

Karamvir Singh