Acknowledgements

Words are often too weak to be a mode of one's inner feelings, especially the sense of indebtedness. The same difficulty is experienced by me in putting on a paper the deep sense of gratitude which I owe to a number of persons.

First of all and above all I bow my head to the Almighty God for His Grace who granted me an opportunity to complete my research work successfully. I wish to place on record my profound indebtedness and sincere thanks to all those who have contributed directly or indirectly in designing and completing this work. I am keenly aware of my indebtedness to all those who in various ways assisted me in my efforts.

At the outset, I would like to express a deep sense of obligation and extreme gratitude to my Supervisor, Dr. (Mrs) Satinder Dhillon, Retd. Principal, Dev Samaj College of Education, Sec-36 B, Chandigarh, under whose guidance the study was carried out. Her willingness to give her time to review my work, discuss my concern and listen to my ideas made me feel at home. Her experience, scholarly guidance, inspiration, valuable suggestions and constant encouragement that helped me during the course of study is whole heartedly acknowledged. It was a privilege for me to work under such a remarkable women.

On the other hand I am greatly indebted and express profound gratitude to my Co-supervisor, Dr. (Mrs) Chand1 r Mohin 1, Principal, Satyam college of Education, Moga, for her expert opinion, guidance and suggestions in improving my research work, facilities given to carry out this study. Her patience, insightedness and dedication were truly impressive.

I would like to thank sincerely the Head of the Department who helped me in the submission of the research work within time without any obstacle.

I wish to thanks to all my friends and colleagues who supported me directly or indirectly in my research which was too difficult to carry out.
I wish to extend my thanks to various libraries, administrative block of the department of Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh for the facilities provided by them.

I dedicate my research work to my parents, my grandparents, Chachu, Husband and loving son Navraj who enable me to work with more strength.

Transcending all this, the unbounded affection, patience understanding continues motivations and co-operation extended all through by my husband Baljinder Singh is highly appreciable. Of course, my son Navraj deserves special thanks he silently endured the absence of his mother from home for the days longer during the thesis work.

My parents, father and mother, my younger brothers hold a special place for giving me moral support and helped me for giving final shape to my thesis. I wish to give them love and thanks for always believing me and encouraging me to pursue my dreams.
