ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The printed pages of this thesis hold far more than the culmination of years of study. These pages also reflect the relationships with many generous and inspiring people I have met since beginning of my research work. The list is long, but I cherish each contribution to my development as a scholar and teacher.

Words are not enough to express my profound gratitude and reverence for my esteemed supervisor Dr. Pawan K. Kamra, Professor, University School of Open Learning, Panjab University, Chandigarh, who with his scholarly erudition and knowledge, imparted his valuable guidance to me. This research endeavour would not have been possible without his insightful thinking and analytical approach. I am deeply indebted to him for nurturing my research aptitude and enriching this thesis in innumerable ways. I am extremely grateful to him for showing keen interest in the research work and providing me much needed guidance and support from the initial to the final level which enabled me to develop an understanding of the subject.

I acknowledge my deep gratitude to Dr. B. S. Ghuman, Professor, Department of Public Administration and Dean, Faculty of Arts, Panjab University, Chandigarh for his constant support and help during the completion of this research project.

I extend my heartfelt thanks to Dr. Ramanjeet Johal, Chairperson, Department of Public Administration, Punjab University, Chandigarh for extending all necessary support to carry out the research work in the department.

I extend my sincere thanks to all the members of teaching faculty especially Dr. Charanjeev Singh, Prof. R.K. Sharma, Dr. Sudhir Sharma of Department of Public Administration and Dr. Anil Monga & Dr. Akshat Mehta of Department of Police Administration, Panjab University, Chandigarh for their help and support.

Thanks are due to all the members of non-teaching staff of Department of Public Administration, Panjab University, Chandigarh for their help and cooperation.

My special thanks are due to the older persons for their precious time and unconditional support which helped me to sail through this arduous journey.
I am also grateful to all the officials and staff of the NGOs and OAHs working at different levels. My special thanks to Mr. Bhavneshwar Sharma, State Head, Help Age India, Chandigarh.

I am also thankful to my colleagues of Department of Public Administration, Post Graduate Government College for Girls, Sector-11, Chandigarh, especially Dr. Indu Kalia, Mrs. Shashi Joshi, Dr. Pandrik Ojha, Dr. C.M.Mahajan, Mr. Ajay Sharma, Mr. S.K. Singh, Dr. Cheena and Dr. Purva Mishra without whose encouragement and motivation the study would not have acquired the present shape.

Many friends have helped me stay sane through these difficult years. Their support and care helped me overcome setbacks and stay focused on my research work. I greatly value their friendship and I deeply appreciate their belief in me. It is my proud privilege to thank my friends especially Dr. Poqja Bansal, Mrs. Bhawna Thakral, Mrs. Manbir Kaur Dhalwal, Mrs. Shivani Singla, Dr. Sakshi, Mrs. Vandana Lama, Mrs. Sugandha Sapru, and Ms. Harpreet Bali for their constant support and motivation.

It is indeed a reality that ever showered blessings of my Parents lent me the much needed moral support in the completion of this project. My sincere thanks are due to my family members who stood by me in thick and thin. I am grateful to my elder sister Mrs. Geetanjali Makkar, my brother-in-law Mr. Vineet Makkar and my elder brother Mr. Gaurav Batra for their unflagging love and support.

I admire the persistent and meticulous support of my husband Mr. Deepak Raheja whose unforgettable companionship and time to time assistance helped me in a big way during the most crucial period of my work.

Most specially, thanks to the angels ‘Saina’ my two years old daughter, Khushi and Saanvi, my nieces for their exuberant smiles and affection which was a source of great inspiration.

Above all my head bows in respect for the ALMIGHTY GOD who gave me strength and kept my spirits high during pursuit of my life. During the course of this study umpteenth time I felt LORD SAI’s presence around and it is THY POWER that I could complete this study.
