Words are often too weak to express one's inner feeling of indebtedness to one's benefactors. The same difficulty haunts me in penning down the deep sense of gratitude.

First of all, with all my humility and sincerity, I bow before the ‘almighty ’ who put strength in me to do and to accomplish the research work successfully in so many adverse situations.

Next to God, I am highly obliged to express my sincere and profound gratitude to my guide Dr. Ravinder Kaur, Principal, Malwa Central College of Education For Women, Ludhiana and Dr. Sarbjit Kaur Ranu, Lecturer, G.H.G. Khalsa College of Education, Gurusar Sadhar for their inspiring guidance, encouraging attitude, constructive criticism, enthusiastic interest, critical examination of their invaluable suggestions throughout this endeavor in the successful completion of this investigation. I consider myself fortunate enough to pursue this arduous research work under their able guidance.

My sincere thanks are also extended to the Principal and Teachers of various colleges for their kind help and co-operation in the collection of data for this study. My sincere gratitude to those authors whose works and names I have quoted in and consulted for my thesis. I am equally thankful to the library personnel.

My whole-hearted gratitude to my father-in-law and mother-in-law for their forthcoming support and encouragement without which it would have been difficult to complete this task.

I specially express my feeling and sense of gratitude to my parents, who taught me to dream and to achieve, gave me roots of responsibility and wings of independence and my dear sister, brother, my relatives and my friends Sarabjit, Gaurav, Ashima, Swippendeep, Barinder, Anita and Jaspree who always helped to make this work fruitful one.

My vocabulary fails to express my gratitude to my life partner, Mr. Sudhir Singal for his constant care, keen interest, persistent encouragement and untiring support throughout the period of research work.
Now I want to thank my little angel Aehsaas who has given support not with the words but with his silence and actions, every time and every moment without understanding the importance of this work.

Special thanks to Dr. Gurmit Singh and thanks to Rajinder and Avninder who always cherished the desire to see me rise and providing matchless help to complete this work. All may not be mentioned but no one is forgotten. By these words I remember all the persons who helped me for reaching at the end of this research work.

Inspite of the best efforts, ventures of this kind are not likely to be free from human errors, some inaccuracies, ambiguities and typographic mistakes. I am responsible for any remaining error.
