ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is a sense of pride and great privilege for me to get this golden opportunity to express my gratitude and admiration to my esteemed Supervisor Prof. (Mrs.) Savita Markanda, Department of Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh whose prudent guidance, expert attention all along with her unique knowledge has been most helpful and given me much inspiration and foresight for the execution of this work. Her criticisms and valuable suggestions have been vital for this thesis.

I am thankful to Prof. Tehal Kohli, Chairperson, Department of Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh for providing all possible help as and when needed.

I proffer a deep sense of gratitude to Prof. C.L. Anand, Ex-Pro V.C, IGNOU and Ex-V.C, Arunachal Pradesh University for his affectionate motivation, encouragement and inspiration.

I am indebted to Dr. Suresh Kumar Sharma, Department of Statistics, Panjab University, Chandigarh. In spite of time constraints he has illuminated me the statistical analysis with his scholarly insight through discussion. I very gratefully acknowledge his thoughts which become lamenting propositions in the present investigation.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to my Parents and Family members whose sacrifice, emotional support and encouragement always remained fountainhead of my inspiration.

I express my appreciation to many authors whose works have been consulted very often and quoted in the study.

I extend a note of thanks to the Adult Education Administrators, Supervisors and Instructors in the State of Orissa whose immense cooperation during data collection for this investigation enabled me to write this thesis.
I am highly thankful to Directorate of Adult Education, New Delhi, State Resource Centre, Bhubaneswar and Regional Resource Centre, Panjab University, Chandigarh for providing necessary materials as and when needed.

I express my sincere thanks to my Friends who inspired and helped me a lot in completing this task.

I am also indebted to Mr. S. K, Mohindru of Computer Department, Panjab University, Chandigarh for processing the data.

I am thankful to Vipan Bains and Williams for giving this manuscript in final form with sincerity and responsibility.

Finally, I express my deepest gratitude to Rabi for his constant cooperation, encouragement, moral support and inspiration at every step of this work without which it would be impossible on my part to finish this work.
