ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is my proud privilege and honour to express my feelings of deep gratitude to my esteemed supervisor, Dr. G.S. Sedhi, M.A., M.Sc., M.Ed., Ph.D., Reader, Department of Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh for his profound knowledge, literary criticism and inexhaustible patience, was a source of immense encouragement to me throughout the present investigation.

My special thanks are due to Dr. Sunil Dutt, Lecturer, Department of Education and Educational Management, Technical Teachers' Training Institute, Chandigarh for extending his whole-hearted guidance, help and cooperation throughout the present investigation.

My deep thanks are due to Dr. A.K. Srivastava, Reader Deptt., of Psychology, Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi, for helping me out with the mental health scale.

I owe my thanks to the Department of Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh, Faculty and office staff for extending their whole-hearted help and co-operation.

I gratefully acknowledge the co-operation extended to me by the Principals, Teachers and Students of the colleges of Education during the collection of the data for this study.

My special thanks are due to Dr. (Mrs.) Sucheta Dutt., Lecturer, Punjab Engineering College, Chandigarh for all the help extended to me by her. I thank my colleagues, especially Mrs. Saroj Saini, Lecturer in Psychology for her co-operation.
I thank Mr. Ravinder Singla, Lecturer, Department of Computer Science, Panjab University, Chandigarh for helping me in analysing the data through computer, and Ms. Bimla for typing this report.

The whole process of putting my thoughts into words through this study could not have been possible without the co-operation and help from my husband Mr. Rakesh Verma and daughter baby Pallavi Verma.
