Acknowledgement

Words are often too weak to express one's inner feeling of indebtedness to one's benefactors. The same difficulty haunts me in penning down the deep sense of gratitude.

First of all, with all my humility and sincerity, I bow before the 'almighty ' who put strength in me to do and to accomplish the research work successfully in so many adverse situations.

Next to God, I express my sincere and profound gratitude to my guide Dr. Sarbjit Kaur Ranu, Associate Professor, G.H.G. Khalsa College of Education, Gurusar Sudhar for her inspiring guidance, encouraging attitude, constructive criticism, enthusiastic interest, invaluable suggestions throughout the course of my endeavor for completion of this investigation. I consider myself very fortunate to have pursued this arduous research work under her guidance.

My whole-hearted gratitude to Dr. Surjeet Singh Sekha for his forthcoming support and encouragement, without which it would have been difficult to complete this task.

I am also sincerely thankful to the Principals and Teachers of different schools for their help and co-operation in collection of the data for this study. My sincere gratitude to those authors also whose works and names I have consulted and quoted in my thesis. I am equally thankful to the personnel of the libraries to which I went for studying the literature relevant to my work.

I specially express my feelings and sense of gratitude to my parents and in-laws, who taught me to dream and to achieve, gave me roots of responsibility and wings of independence. I would also like to express here my loving thanks to my niece Gagandeep and friend Mrs. Manisha Aggarwal for their forthcoming support and encouragement.
My vocabulary fails to express my gratitude to my husband, Mr. Avininder Pal Singh Sandhu for his constant care, keen interest, persistent encouragement and untiring support throughout the period of research work. My heart thanks my little angels Shivgeet and Dilshaan who has given support not with the words but with their silence and actions, every time and every moment.

All names can not be mentioned but no one is forgotten. By these words I remember all the persons who helped me for reaching at the end of this research undertaking.
