Acknowledgement

I feel a deep sense of gratitude for my esteemed supervisor, Prof. (Mrs) Nandita Singh, Chairperson, Department of Education, Panjab University Chandigarh for her inspiration, valuable guidance and constant feedback for this study. I am highly indebted to her for encouragement, support coupled with constructive criticism, fertile imagination, continuous interest, elucidations, general smiles, friendly temperament and above all the ever encouraging attitude and her valuable time throughout the development and the completion of this thesis. Despite her busy schedule she has been always available for discussion. Thank you so much Ma'am.

I also owe my humble gratitude to all the staff members, Office Clarks and Librarian at Department of Education, for helping me at every step in completing my research work. I am grateful for the inspiration and wisdom of many thinkers and researchers for the transgenerational sources and roots of wisdom. I am gratefully acknowledged their valuable thoughts and works, which became cementing proportions in the present investigation.

I am thankful to the administrators, teachers and students whose immense cooperation for this investigation enabled me to test ideas and write this thesis. I thanks to all my friends and Junior research fellows for their support and valuable suggestions.

I would like to extend my thanks to all those who have helped in finishing my work on time. I will not go into listing all the names here, but I remember even the slightest instance of support provided to me. I heartily thank all the evaluators who spared time from their schedule to evaluate my questionnaire and helped me in improving it and standardizing it for my work.

I owe a never ending sense of regard and gratitude to my Father and Mother who stood by me in all my decisions and for extending me much needed support and inspiration to finish this arduous task. My Brother, Sister and niece Tulip need a mention as being a motivating and nurturing force. I wish to thank my all well-wishers and loved ones for their sincere concern and prayers for me. Many people contributed their time and expertise in the development and execution of this research work.

Above all, I thank the Almighty for everything......... He blessed me with.
