ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

“Gratitude is not a thing of expression; it is a matter of feelings”

To be human in real sense is to be humble. To be humble is to regard and recognize others whom one is heartily indebted. As it is said darkness labours whole night to bloom the rose and remains silent to take the daylight her credit. Likewise, many well-wishers contributed to this project and stepped aside for me to take the credit but being humble and modest, it becomes my moral duty to acknowledge their share in finalizing the project.

My head bows with devotion to Almighty God, who showered on me the physical and mental strength to accomplish this project.

Leading this research and list of acknowledgments sparkles the name of my esteemed guide Dr. Shashi Kala, Sr. Lecturer in Education, D. A. V. College of Education, Abohar. My head bows in reverence to my esteemed guide with a sense of profound gratitude that the value of the guidance rendered by her in this endeavour of mine cannot be expressed in words. It is only through her keen interest, increasing encouragement, affectionate treatment and generous help that I could accomplish this research project.

My acknowledgement would be incomplete if I fail to express my gratitude to Dr. Govinder Kaur Sidhu, Principal, S. D. S. College of Education for Women, Lopan- District Moga, for her constant encouragement and readily available guidance during the entire study.

I am also thankful to all the subjects who have rendered their cooperation in the collection of relevant data for the present project.

I express my deepest gratitude to my father in law, Mr. R. S. Parmar, retired Principal, Govt. Polytechnic, Hoshiarpur, my father Mr. R. L. Chawla, my mother
Mrs. Santosh Chawla, my sister Kavita Chawla and all my colleagues for their moral support, understanding and encouragement during the entire study.

In the last but not the least, it my great pleasure to express my heartiest thanks to my husband Mr. Atul Parmar who encouraged and guided me at every step and helped to make the present study possible and viable. My loving daughter Anjali also deserves to be mentioned for sacrificing her precious time for my study.

All is not mentioned but none is forgotten.
