ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Words are rarely sufficient to convey heartfelt gratitude, but in the absence of any other media, I express myself to be indebted to Dr. G.S. Sodhi, Reader (Retd.), Department of Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh and Dr. H.S. Brar, G.H.G. Khalsa College of Education, Gurusar Sadhar for their inspiring, ungrudging and insightful guidance at the different stages of this study. Their professional acumen and painstaking efforts have immensely contributed to improve the quality of the thesis. I am also extremely grateful to Mrs. G.S. Sodhi, Mrs. H.S. Brar and family for always accommodating me even at odd times.

Acknowledgement of deep appreciation is extended to Dr. Asha Gupta, the Chairperson, Department of Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh for extending me available facilities required in conducting this investigation.

My profound thanks goes to the principals and staff of schools of Ludhiana district and my subjects who directly or indirectly helped me in this research work.

Last but not the least, I owe a word of gratitude to my parents, daughter, son, Tina and my beloved husband who have provided well needed support throughout this study.
