ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The present work could not have been completed without the constant involvement of my esteemed teacher and guide Dr. S.C. Gakhar. I with sincere gratitude and overwhelming indebtedness wish to extend my thanks to him. His dexterous guidance, valuable suggestions, constructive criticism, fertile imagination, elucidations, genial smiles, parental temperament and above all the ever-encouraging attitude throughout the tenure of this research project has enabled me to achieve this form of presentation.

I owe much to countless individuals, to mentors and colleagues, to students and to friends. Many of them have been a constant source of ideas, insight and observation for me.

I express my indebtedness to Professor (Miss) Sudesh Gakhar, Department of Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh for her loving attitude, concrete suggestions, painstaking efforts, insightful and scholarly guidance and constant inspiration at my disposal. I also wish to extend my thanks to Professor J.N. Joshi, Department of Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh, for his critical suggestions and valuable guidance.

I am really thankful to Dr. Anand Bhushan, Chairman, Education Department, Panjab University, Chandigarh, for providing me research facilities throughout my research project.
I am equally grateful to the heads of various institutions, who ungrudgingly rendered all help and gave their time and co-operation in collection of data for the present study.

A special word of thanks goes to the students to whom this work is dedicated, who sat patiently through the whole time of data collection.

I highly value the words of encouragement and moral support from my husband Mr. Rajesh Saini, my friends Miss Kiran Saini and Miss Naginder Kular, my parents and my all family members, which motivated me to sustain efforts and accelerated the pace of my work. I am extremely grateful to Mrs. Saroj Gakhar, wife of my worthy guide and Nishant and Megha for always giving me affection and accommodating me at each and every time.

Warm thanks are also due to various authors, whose valuable works I have freely consulted and quoted in my research work.
