No. 77

PERSONAL ASSISTANT TO THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION, ASSAM.

To,

Sri. J. R. CUNNINGHAM, Esq. -

C. I. E., M. A.,

D. P. L. A. S. A. M.,

GENTLEMEN,

I am directed by the Director of Public Instruction to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 571, dated 19th December 1927, for letters Nos. 602, 610 and 612, dated 19th November 1927.

2. I have to state that the rules for the working of the Text Book Committee in Assam have been approved by the Government of India. As will be seen from these rules, the initiative in regard to the introduction of new textbooks has been transferred to the school authorities and inspecting officers who will be consulted periodically in regard to the propriety of making changes in and additions to the approved list. The submission of text-books to the Text Book Committee is, however, still invited with reference to subjects and courses in which the approved Text Books will not adequately meet the requirements of the schools. Where there are special reasons for the Text Book Committee to approve a book, a copy of the special reasons must be sent to the Text Book Committee along with the text-book.

3. The present list of text-books, as published in the Assam Gazette of 24th April 1927, was under notification No. 340-0 dated 26th March 1927. The text-books will be submitted to the Text Book Committee for final approval. The text-books will be published soon.

4. The books will be returned to you on receipt of remittance to cover the cost of postage.

5. The change has been introduced in the textbooks which have been approved by the Text Book Committee in Assam. The new procedure will involve the schools in making changes in the text-books. It is hoped, however, that the schools will not be called upon to do anything which is not necessary. The Government of India has directed that the schools should not be required to keep any stock of the books which have been approved by the Text Book Committee. The schools will be supplied with books on a yearly basis.

I have the honour to be,

Yours very much to hand,

C. S.

Personal Assistant to the Director of Public Instruction, Assam.

The Hon'ble Member, Assam Legislative Assembly.

Srijut Kamala Kanta Barua,
Personal Assistant to the Director of Public Instruction, Assam.

To
Srijut Dandiram Kalita,
Tezpur.

Shillong, the 12 Novr. 1919.

Sir,

With reference to the correspondence resting with your letter dated 10th October 1919, I am directed by the Director of Public Instruction, Assam, to return in a separate registered cover the manuscript of Prodi Part I an II and to enclose an extract from the proceedings of a meeting of the Assam Valley Text Book Committee held on 9th September 1919.

You will see that the committee approve the book. The next step if you desire it to be used in schools is to have it printed, published and put on the market as soon as possible.

2. Before the book can be prescribed the published version will have to be resubmitted to this office for examination as to its price, printing and general get up.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
