ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The drops of words are few, but the ocean of feelings of gratitude is deeper in my heart for those who proved themselves to be lamp post in the way of accomplishing my research project.

First of all I am greatly and whole heartedly thankful to the Almighty God, with whose blessings I had been able to clear another phase of my life.

It gives me tremendous pleasure to place on record my deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness to my honourable supervisor, Dr. M.L. Jaidka, senior lecturer, D.M. college of Education of, Moga under whose inspiring guidance, I had the privilege to complete this research work. He proved to be a beacon guide to me. He became Torch Bearer by giving his critical comments, able guidance and most valuable suggestions. It has been my cherished privilege to work under his supervision.

My sincere thanks to Dr. Gurmit Singh, lecturer, Malwa Central college of Education, Ludhiana for providing encouragement and ever willing help.

I am highly thankful to all those authors, whose work have been consulted and referred to in this thesis.

My thanks are also due to the heads and teachers of various schools of Punjab without whose cooperation the data collection would not have been possible.

I also thank all those persons who remained behind the scene and helped me in collection of the required data.

My special thanks are due to my better half, C.A. Sanjeev Garg, for motivating me to undertake this doctoral work. Without his constant inspiration, patience, cooperation, sympathetic attitude, concrete suggestions and keen interest in the present investigation, this work would not have taken the present shape.

My sincere thanks, indebtedness and gratitude to my sweet little kids Ishita and Pulkit who cooperated with love and patience, many times suffered also but still encouraged me. Pulkit when he opened his eyes in this world, this work also started and now when he is ready to join school, this thesis is being submitted. I thank my family from the deepest cores of my heart.
