ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Thesis writing for Indian universities is a stupendous task. It could not have been possible without the help of lecturers and well-wishers to whom I sincerely owe a sense of gratitude. My particular indebtedness is to my research guide Prof. T. Subramanyam Naidu, Dean, School of Social Sciences and International Studies, Pondicherry University

Research work, however trivial it may be, can neither move in right direction nor come to a successful completion without an expert guidance. I have been exceptionally fortunate in getting the able guidance of Prof. T. Subramanyam Naidu in his respect. His inspiring attitude and encouragement went on a long way in maintaining my interest in the thesis. The shape it has taken is the result of his untiring support in search for knowledge and ceaseless efforts in guiding me. It is a privilege and a matter of pride to have done this research study under him. I owe him a special debt for his paternal consideration, timely help and scholarly suggestions throughout the course.

I express my sincere thanks to Dr. M. Sethuraman, Associate Professor, Tribal Research Centre, Tamil University, Thanjavur. It was his systematic and earnest supervision throughout the study that provided me the essential push and confidence to complete the thesis. I express my deep felt gratitude to him, whose sincere involvement and advice as countless aspects motivated the timely and successful completion of the study.

I convey my special thanks to Dr. V. Subramanyam, who had inspired and guided me to the right path by adding valuable suggestions and undaunted help for the successful completion of this research work and mould me as an anthropologist.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to Dr. A. Chellaperumal, Head of the Department, Dr. Jesurathanam Devarapalli and Miss. Valerie Dkhar, Lecturers, Department of Anthropology, Pondicherry University for their constant suggestions, ideas and valuable advices.

I convey my special thanks to Dr. Robin Oakley, Associate Professor, Dept. Sociology and Social Anthropology, Dalhousie University, Canada, who put her valuable efforts and guidance to mould my career as an anthropologist.
I like to convey my gratitude to Dr. G. Palanisamy, Mr. V. Laxmi Narayan Dash, and Miss. Meenatchi who gave their extending support to complete this dissertation. My thanks go to Dean Office staff A. Saravanan, V. Dhanalakshmi, R. Ramanujam, and Department of Anthropology office staff V. Selvaganapathy, V. Subbiah for their support during my research.

I owe special debts of gratitude to Mr. S. Prabakar, Dr. K. Anbu, Dr. G. Satheesh Kumar and Mr. P.B. Shankar Narayan, Lecturers, Department of Social Work, Pondicherry University, whose inspiration made me to complete the work successfully.

I thank my beloved friends Dr. S. Mani, Mr. N. Sakthimurugan, Mr. K. Maran, Mr. U. Premnaath, Mr. R. Arunkumar, Mr. S. Djeachandirane Siva, Mr. C. Ramanadhaswamy, Mr. Kalamoorthy, Mr. Sridharan, Miss. Radjesvary, Miss. V.R. Revathy, Miss. E. Subha Priya, Mr. Ramya Ranjan Mishra, Mr. Sangaram Kumar Rout, Miss. Veena B. Nair and Miss. Claudia Beirshmann for their untiring efforts for my successful completion of these project report and for their advice and support all through out my prosperous future.

My heartiest thanks to my friends Mr. G. Vijayakumar, Mr. Sathes kumar, Mr. V. Amuthavalluvan and Mr. Thangavelou for their most valuable effort to interpret and editing my data in the computer for the successful completion of my thesis. My special thanks to all my juniors who co-operated with me and to shape up this project successfully.

I also express my sincere thanks to the all the villagers and village headmen who extended their full co-operation during the collection of the data. I owe my special thanks to Miss. Meenatchi and her family of Nilguri district who cared for me a lot, while my stay in Ooty. Their showering love, caring attitude and persistent helps in collecting data for my thesis was heart rendering.

Last but not the least I express my sincere thanks to all my family members who had bear up with me throughout my life and helped during my frustrated moments. I would always reserve a special felicitation to my beloved sister Miss K. Bouvanesvary Brumot and my brother Mr. K. Gopinath for their love and care.

K. Sasicoumar Brumot