APPENDIX II

TEACHER ATTITUDE SCALE
By
S.S. Grewal
Punjabi University,
Patiala

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Father Address</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Age</td>
<td>Sex Male/Female</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Post as</td>
<td>School Rural/Urban</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Teaching experience</td>
<td>Subjects taught</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total No. of Teachers in School</td>
<td>Educational Qualifications</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

INSTRUCTIONS
This is a scale to have your opinions about various issues related to Education and Teaching. Kindly read each statement carefully.
If you strongly agree with the statement, tick (✓) the column SA.
If you agree, tick (✓) the column A.
If you mildly agree, tick (✓) the column MA.
If you mildly disagree, tick (✓) the column MD.
If you disagree, tick (✓) the column D.
If you strongly disagree, tick (X) the column SD.

1. It is sin to go in for teaching.
2. Teaching profession has many personal rewards and it contributes to happier living.
3. A teacher can improve his standard of teaching if he knows how to work with small and large groups of pupils of varying ages.
4. The teacher should accept the feelings of the students in a non-threatening manner.
5. A teacher should read professional literature with intrinsic interest.
6. A teacher should apply different evaluation devices and tools and their uses in appraising the growth of the child in education.
7. A teacher plays a vital role in the development of good citizens.
8. A teacher should not be a source of inspiration to the students.
9. Every student has something admirable in him.
10. Teaching profession provides opportunities to grow and learn.
11. A teacher can progress only if he has maximum understanding of his pupils.

12. A teacher should not be willing frustration if it is really there.

13. A teacher should promote problem solving approach among students.

14. Students should be given more freedom in the classroom than they usually get.

15. Participation in games increases respect for the rules.

16. Punishment tends to lower down the morale of students.

17. It is educationally sound for a teacher to know how to help his pupils to be more eager, curious, inventive and creative.

18. A teacher should not show interest in individual student's needs and problems when approached.

19. A teacher should work toward some goal that he has set for himself.

20. Dignity of teaching profession should be maintained by the teachers.

21. Unquestioned obedience in a child is desirable.

22. Students make excellent use of their leisure time by participating in games and sports.

23. Every awkward situation in the classroom should not be turned into a joke.

24. A teacher should know how to enable pupils to think originally and independently.

25. A teacher should have no desire to know about the personal background of the students of his class.

26. A teacher should send students to the library for needed information.

27. The prime objective of a school athletic programme is to provide for the vicarious satisfaction of the needs of the students.

28. A teacher should be conversant with the latest research in the field of education for his professional growth.

29. Bachelor's degree in education is valuable for the reason that it prepares an individual for effective teaching.

30. A teacher should participate in cultural activities of the students.

31. Teachers just cannot be trusted.
32. A teacher should have human feelings for his pupils.
33. Social prestige of a teacher should not be higher than that of a lawyer, a doctor or an engineer.
34. Games and sports lead to unhealthy competitions.
35. Most of the students do not appreciate what their teachers do for them.
36. A teacher must accept his personal limitations.
37. Good teachers have fewer discipline problems than poor teachers.
38. Social prestige of a teacher should not be higher than that of a lawyer, a doctor or an engineer.
39. The teacher should punish the child who is incompetent to participate in certain school activities.
40. Talented people would be wasting their time in teaching.
41. Active participation in professional organizations gives deep satisfaction and stimulation to teachers.
42. A teacher must not accept his personal limitations.
43. A teacher should not have any desire to know about his students.
44. Teaching is an interesting occupation.
45. Language in essence is a tool for effective teaching.
46. A teacher should remain altogether insensitive to gifted students' needs and problems.
47. The teacher should not be an advisor to the students.
48. A teacher should help boys and girls develop effective skills for living and working to gather in an increasingly interdependent world.
49. A teacher should give moral support to his students.
50. Reading editorials is only waste of teachers' time as it is least helpful in their professional growth.
51. Taster courses serve as a valuable means of ending the in-service education of teachers. Generally a teacher should do the work expected of him.
52. School clubs and student bodies develop sense of belongingness among students.
53. The intellectual stimulation gained from participation in well-conducted workshops is bound to add much to teachers' professional growth.
54. A teacher should hate slow learners and they should be dropped.

Contd...
6. Workshops provide for the pooling of information regarding content and methods of instruction.

7. A teacher has to work out some sort of compromise between ideals and practice.

8. Teachers should take problems of students' conduct seriously.

9. A teacher should encourage the students doing extra studies.

10. Co-curricular activities are generally responsible for aggressive behaviour.

11. The teacher should try to guide the behaviour of the students through socially desirable channels.

12. The appropriateness of the audio-visual aids is basic in determining the effectiveness of a given lesson.

13. Action research provides potential for changing behaviour of teachers towards improved teaching.

14. Co-curricular activities are absolutely useless as they create unnecessary rivalries among students.

15. Facilities for advanced study and research should be provided for teachers.

16. A teacher should like his pupils as they are generally very loyal to him.

17. Corporal punishment is undesirable.

18. Inter-school exchange of teachers gives added support for developing both individual and group skills in attacking new problems.

19. Co-curricular activities play a vital role in the development of good citizens.

20. A teacher should be prepared to accept differences in opinions regarding the worth of different jobs.