ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

It gives me immense pleasure to express my deep gratitude to Prof. Dr. (Mrs.) S.P. Bedi, Department of Education and Educational Management, National Institute of Technical Teachers Training and Research, Chandigarh who acted as my supervisor. Her wide knowledge and her logical way of thinking have been of great value for me. The joy and enthusiasm she has for her research was contagious and motivational for me, even during tough times in the Ph.D. pursuit.

I pay my sincere thanks to Dr. Nandita, chairman, Department of Education, Panjab university, Chandigarh for providing invaluable support, guidance and facilities for the study.

My thanks are also due to all the experts of various institutions who enriched me with their valuable suggestions for finalization of research tool. Principals of various schools, secondary school teachers, who provided me full cooperation for collecting data also needs special recognition.

My sincere thanks goes to Dr. Monica Bedi, Assistant Professor, University Business School for extending her help whenever it was sought.

I would like to thank all the researchers, authors whose work has been used in the present study that helped me to broaden my vision and knowledge base.

I have no words to express my gratitude to my parents-in-law who supported me in this academic pursuit.

Lastly, I would like to thank my parents and my brother for all their love and encouragement. For my parents who raised me with love, supported me in all my pursuits and were right behind me through the difficult phases of this academic pursuit. And most of all for my loving, supportive, encouraging, and patient husband Mohit, whose faithful support during the final stages of this Ph.D. is so appreciated. Thank you.
