ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The researcher is deeply indebted to his supervisor, Dr. J.N. Joshi, Professor and Head, Department of Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh, whose learned guidance, compelling inspiration, sympathetic attitude, inculcation of spirit to analyse things and concrete suggestions guided this study to completion.

Acknowledgement of deep appreciation is extended to Dr. S.S. Mathur, Professor and Head, Department of Education, Kumaon University and Dr. J.N. Kapur, Professor and Head, Department of Mathematics, Indian Institute of Technology, Kanpur for their advice, encouragement, professional interest and assistance during the course of present investigation.

Further appreciation is extended to the company of sincere friends, who kept up morale of sagging spirit inspite of many vicissitudes of mortal life.

Smt. Saraswati Devi, the mother of the researcher deserves grateful recognition for her inspiration, support, understanding and encouragement for the entire endeavour.

Indebtedness is owed to administrators, teachers and students for their co-operation in the collection of data.

The authors whose works have been freely used for the development of the present study deserve thanks of the investigator.

CHANDIGARH,
October, 1979.

( Mulkh Raj Tuli )